These are the faces of Stepinac.

A mélange of emotion.

Faces of protest,

of humor,

of poignant drama.

The inimitable expressions of enjoyment, of contest,

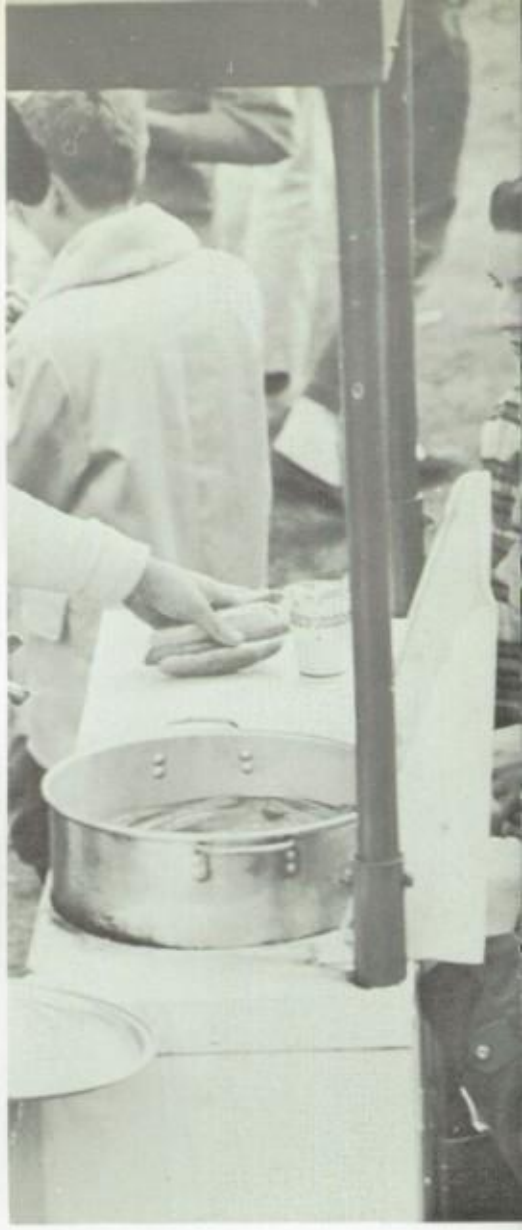
of surprise,

and above all, of victory.



The Stepinac rooters.

In any weather.

For any sport.

A yelling, chanting, screaming, electrified mob.

This is the indefinable spark that kindles the desire of the competitor

to bring recognition

both to himself, and to his school.

ACADEMIC

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Officially organized as a functioning body in 1961, the student officer and judicial system has emerged as an extremely cohesive and hard-working unit. Under the presidency of Bob Hyland, the student management of the school has been a source of pride and inspiration. Working with Tom Choquette and Jack Cochran, Bob has co-ordinated the best intramural program in the school's history, a program that embraced not only the traditional sport of basketball, but also that of bowling, and for the first time, softball! These men leave a formidable record to be matched by their successors.

DEBATING

ROBERT BOTT

HARRY FOGARTY

RICHARD GARCIA

RESOLVED: THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD PROMOTE A COMMON MARKET FOR THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE

For the first time in five years, the varsity debaters labored under the handicap of two resolutions. The initial proposition was, Resolved: that the U.S. should adopt a policy of free trade with the non-communist nations of the world. Working under this topic, the team fared poorly in their first five tournaments.

With the adoption of a second proposal, success was almost immediate. The team won the Archdiocesan debate championship and thereby qualified for the National Finals in Pittsburgh. On the road to glory, they placed first in the Bronx-Manhattan district of the State League, and fourth in the State finals at Albany.

Father Scheets and Father Bruemmer have much to look forward to next year, with a very promising JV taking over for the graduating seniors.

Under the direction of Father McGowan, the Photography Staff capably handled the work of THE SHEPHERD, THE CRUSADER, and publicity for the local papers. The men on this page proved that photography is truly an art form, and as artists they occasionally exhibited a definitely individual temperament. Their results are to be seen throughout this yearbook. Our thanks to these masters of the shutter for their year-long effort.

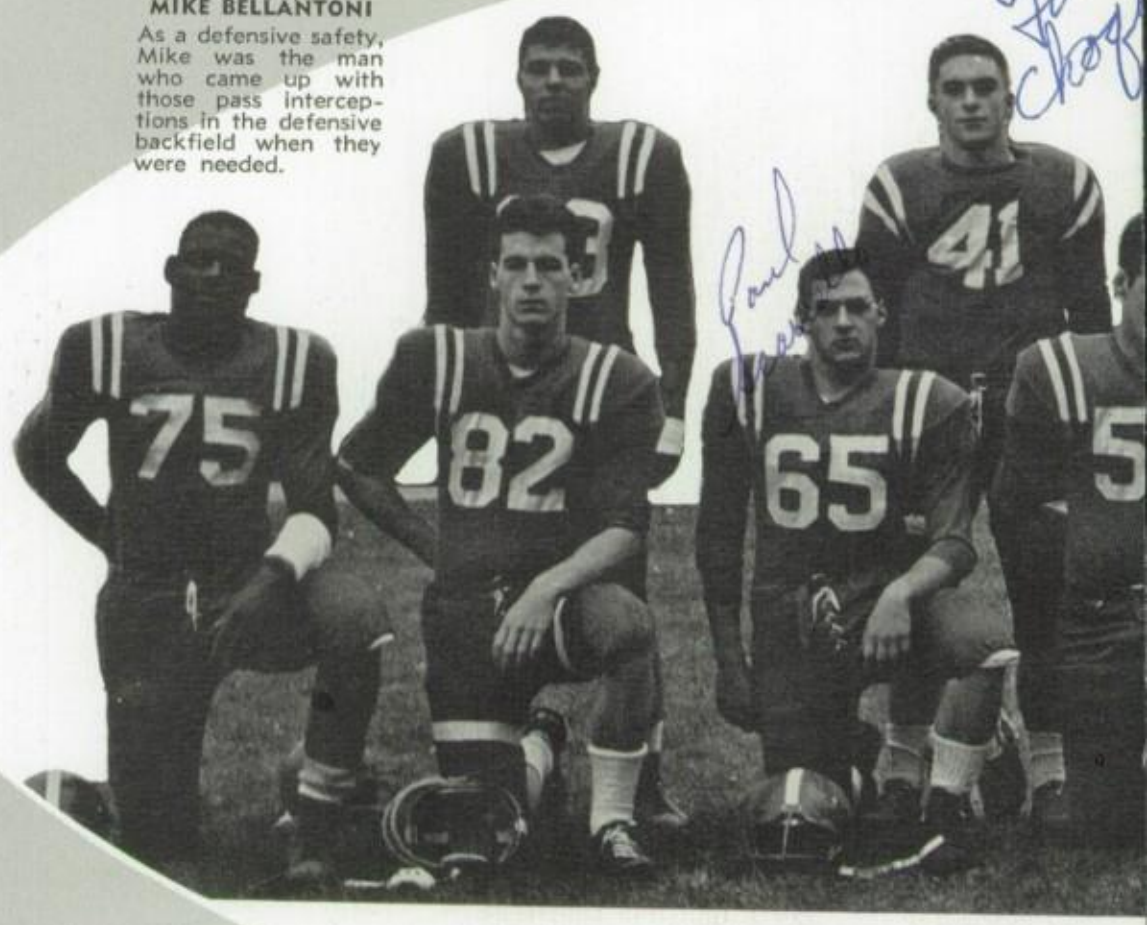
Tom Choq

MIKE BELLANTONI
As a defensive safety, Mike was the man who came up with those pass interceptions in the defensive backfield when they were needed.



KEN DOYEN
Journal American All Catholic 3rd team, Post All Catholic Honorable Mention, CHSFL "Lineman of the Week."
Ken's defensive tackling and offensive blocking at end was one of the reasons for this year's fine record.

CHRIS MARKEY
As a transfer student from Cleveland Chris' offensive blocking at tackle was a very welcome addition to the team this year.

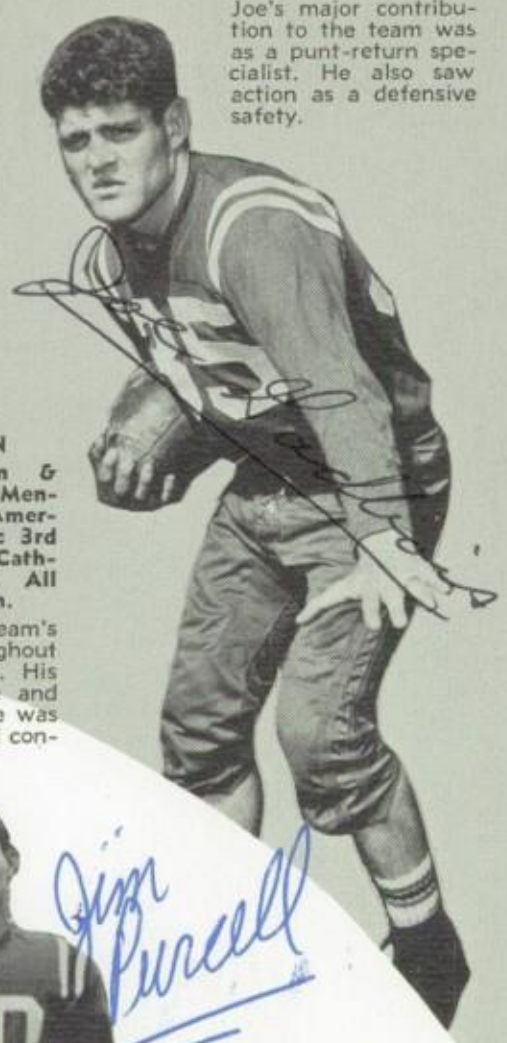
PAUL SCARCELLO
Paul saw regular action throughout the season as an offensive guard as well as a defensive linebacker.

TOM WALKER
Tom developed as the season progressed, seeing action as a fierce defensive tackle.

RICH D'ALTON
"Dingles" sustained early injuries which hampered his spirited play. He was a defensive back.

JOE GADBOIS

Joe's major contribution to the team was as a punt-return specialist. He also saw action as a defensive safety.



CHARLIE BLEAKLEY

One of the fastest men on the team, John's offensive blocking was the most consistent of a brilliant line. His play at defensive end was just as laudable.

RICHARD WINZIG

"Whizzer" added depth to the defensive backfield. Rich came out in his junior year.

JIM DYER

Jim was a senior transfer from Rye High. After adjusting to the offensive patterns, his services proved invaluable.

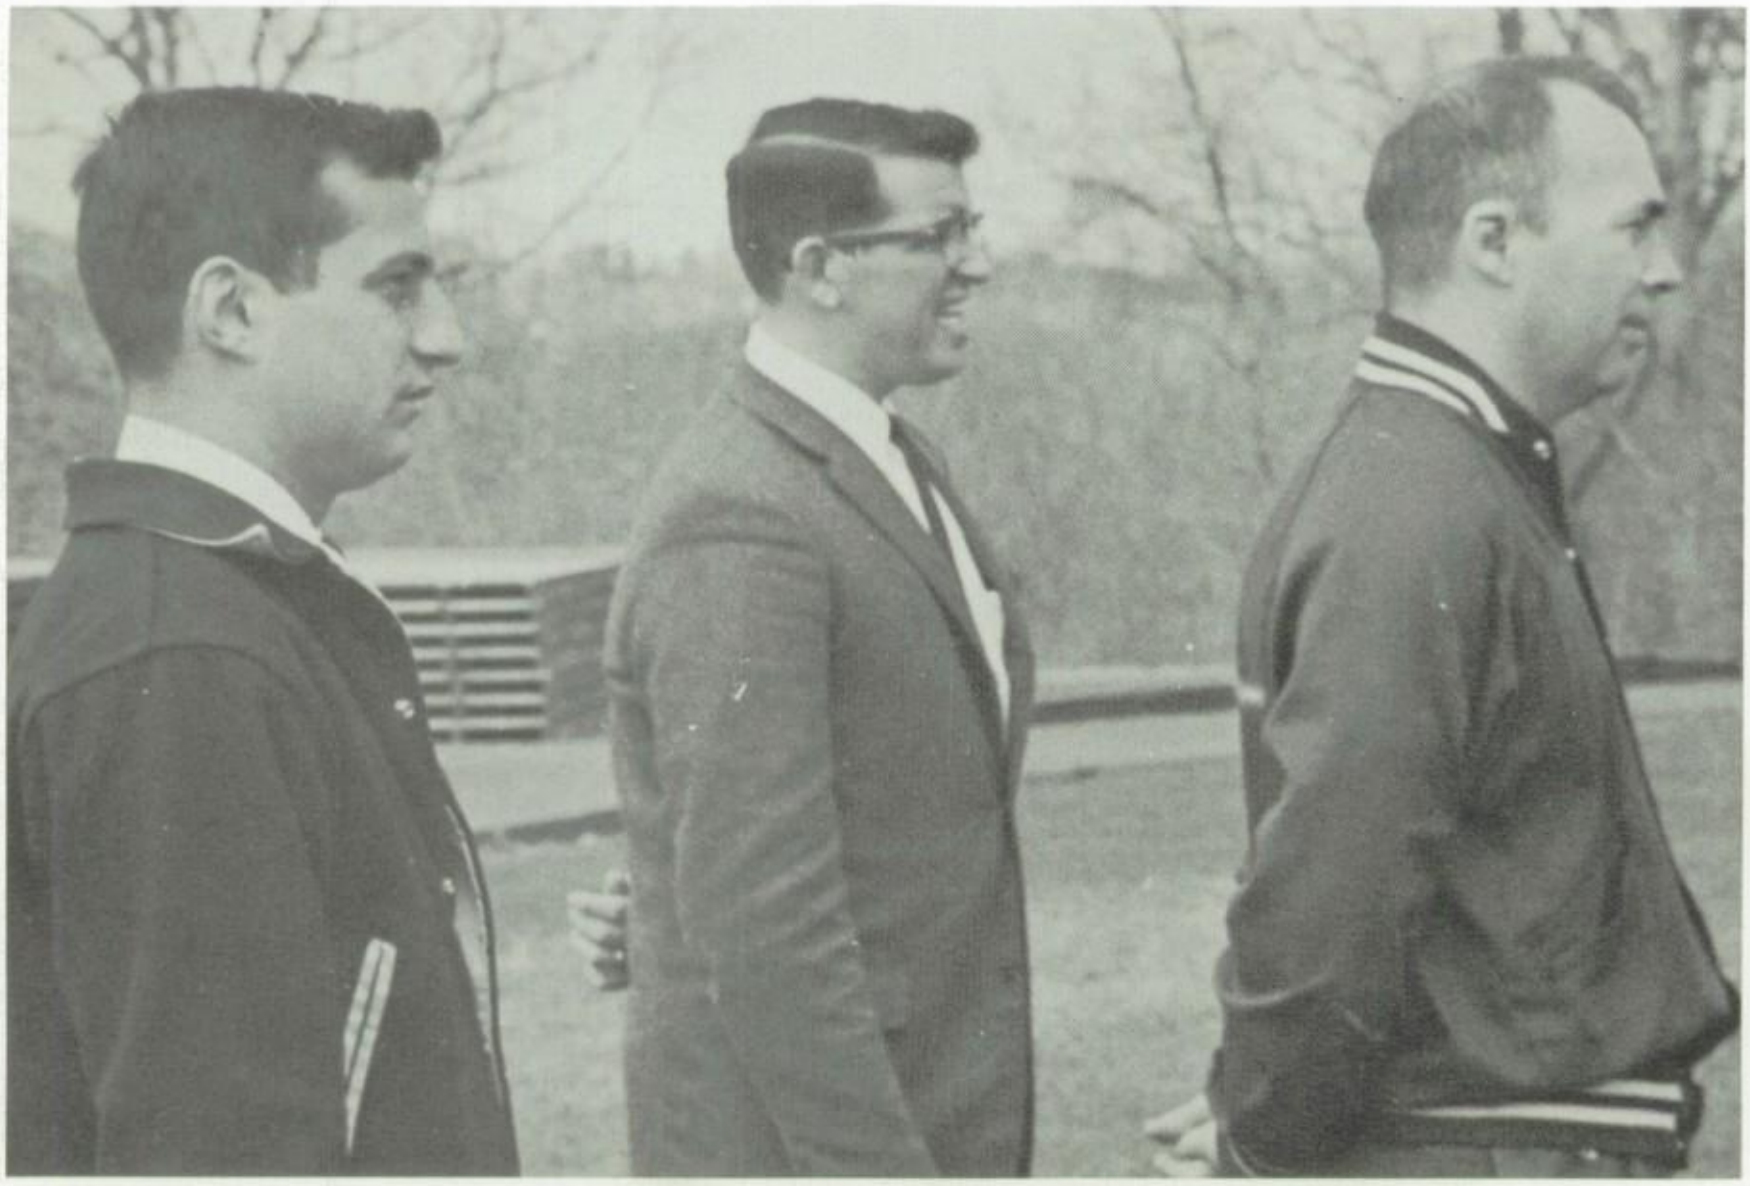
BRAIN-TRUST

Just as no organization can survive without a leader, Stepinac's football team would certainly have floundered without its able coaching staff. This team was especially fortunate in having three fine mentors in Mr. Joseph Sullivan, Mr. Louis Pesce, and Mr. Anthony Amendola.

Mr. Sullivan, head coach since 1958, has compiled a 23-15-1 record. This year, working with a nucleus of seniors who as sophomores captured the CHSFL JV championship, Mr. Sullivan fashioned a club that became in his estimation, "the best in the school's history." In view of the fact that Mr. Sullivan has been coaching here since the inception of football in 1950, his praise for the '62 squad takes on added significance.

Both Mr. Pesce and Mr. Amendola, who were formally pigskin proteges of Mr. Sullivan at Stepinac, contributed greatly to the success of this victorious club. This year, after two successful seasons with the JV, including the flag clinching team in his first year at the helm, Mr. Amendola moved up to varsity status as the backfield mentor.

Also a first year varsity coach, Mr. Pesce ably instructed the tenacious Stepinac line. Mr. Pesce guided the Crusader frosh from 1958-60.



Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Pesce, and Mr. Amendola await a measurement.

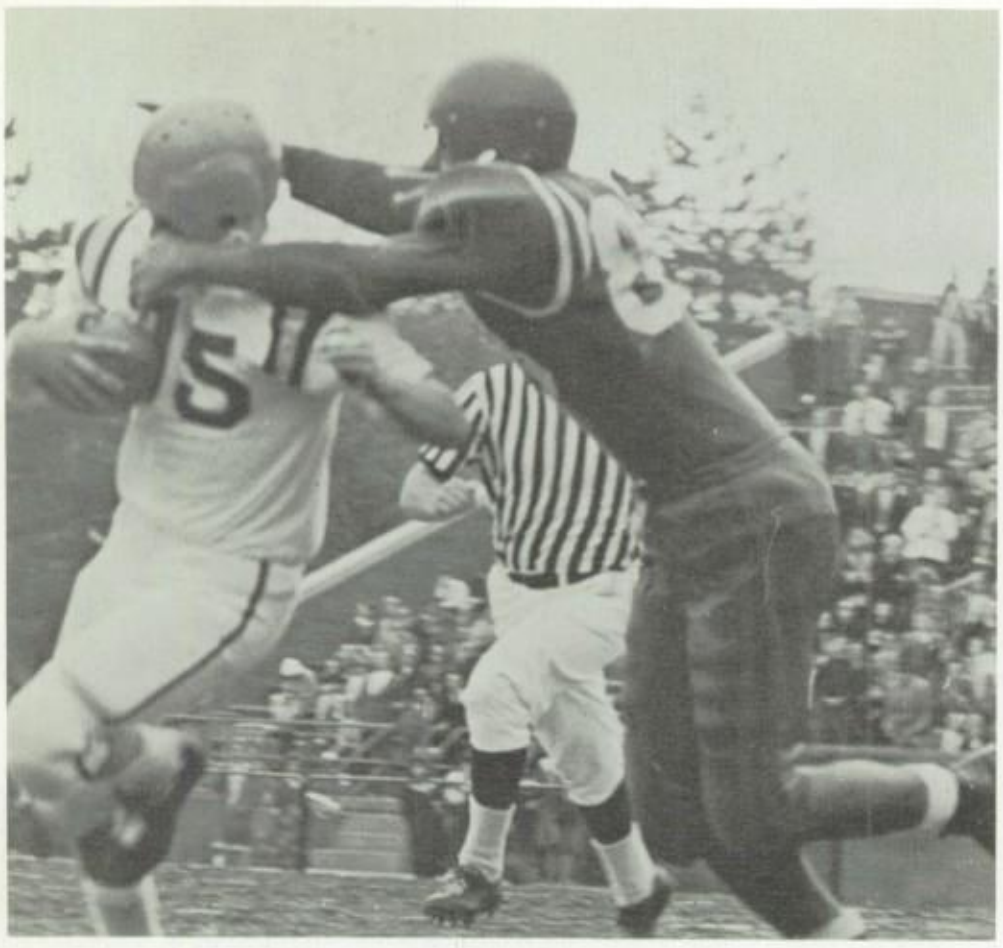
BLOOD, SWEAT AND TOIL

Purcell and Doyen get a well deserved rest.

The long hours of sweat and toil culminated in a fine 6-2 record.

The tired faces of the team reflect the struggle of the first half.



Bellantoni collars the Iona quarterback.

DEFENSE: THE BACKBONE

Season after season the Stepinac trademark has been the hard-charging "monster line." This year the legend was extended by a line which, averaging well over 200 pounds, permitted but one rushing touchdown all season. Harassing enemy passers from the flanks were John Montanaro and Ken Doyen. The middle bulged with tackles Dick Amen and Bob Hyland, and Jim Duffy at middle guard. Tom Choquette and Charlie Bleakley were consistently bruising tacklers from their linebacking spots. Defending against aerial attacks were juniors Jim Quinn and Bill Austin, and seniors Jim Purcell and Mike Bellantoni.

Numerous goal line stands and many key interceptions resulted in a total of only 44 points for our eight opponents, four of whom were held scoreless by our nearly impregnable defense.

The Stepinac line vainly attempts to block a punt.

Austin slows up the Iona quarterback as Montanaro and Guimon move in for the kill.

Bellantoni strains to deflect pass from waiting Mount receiver.

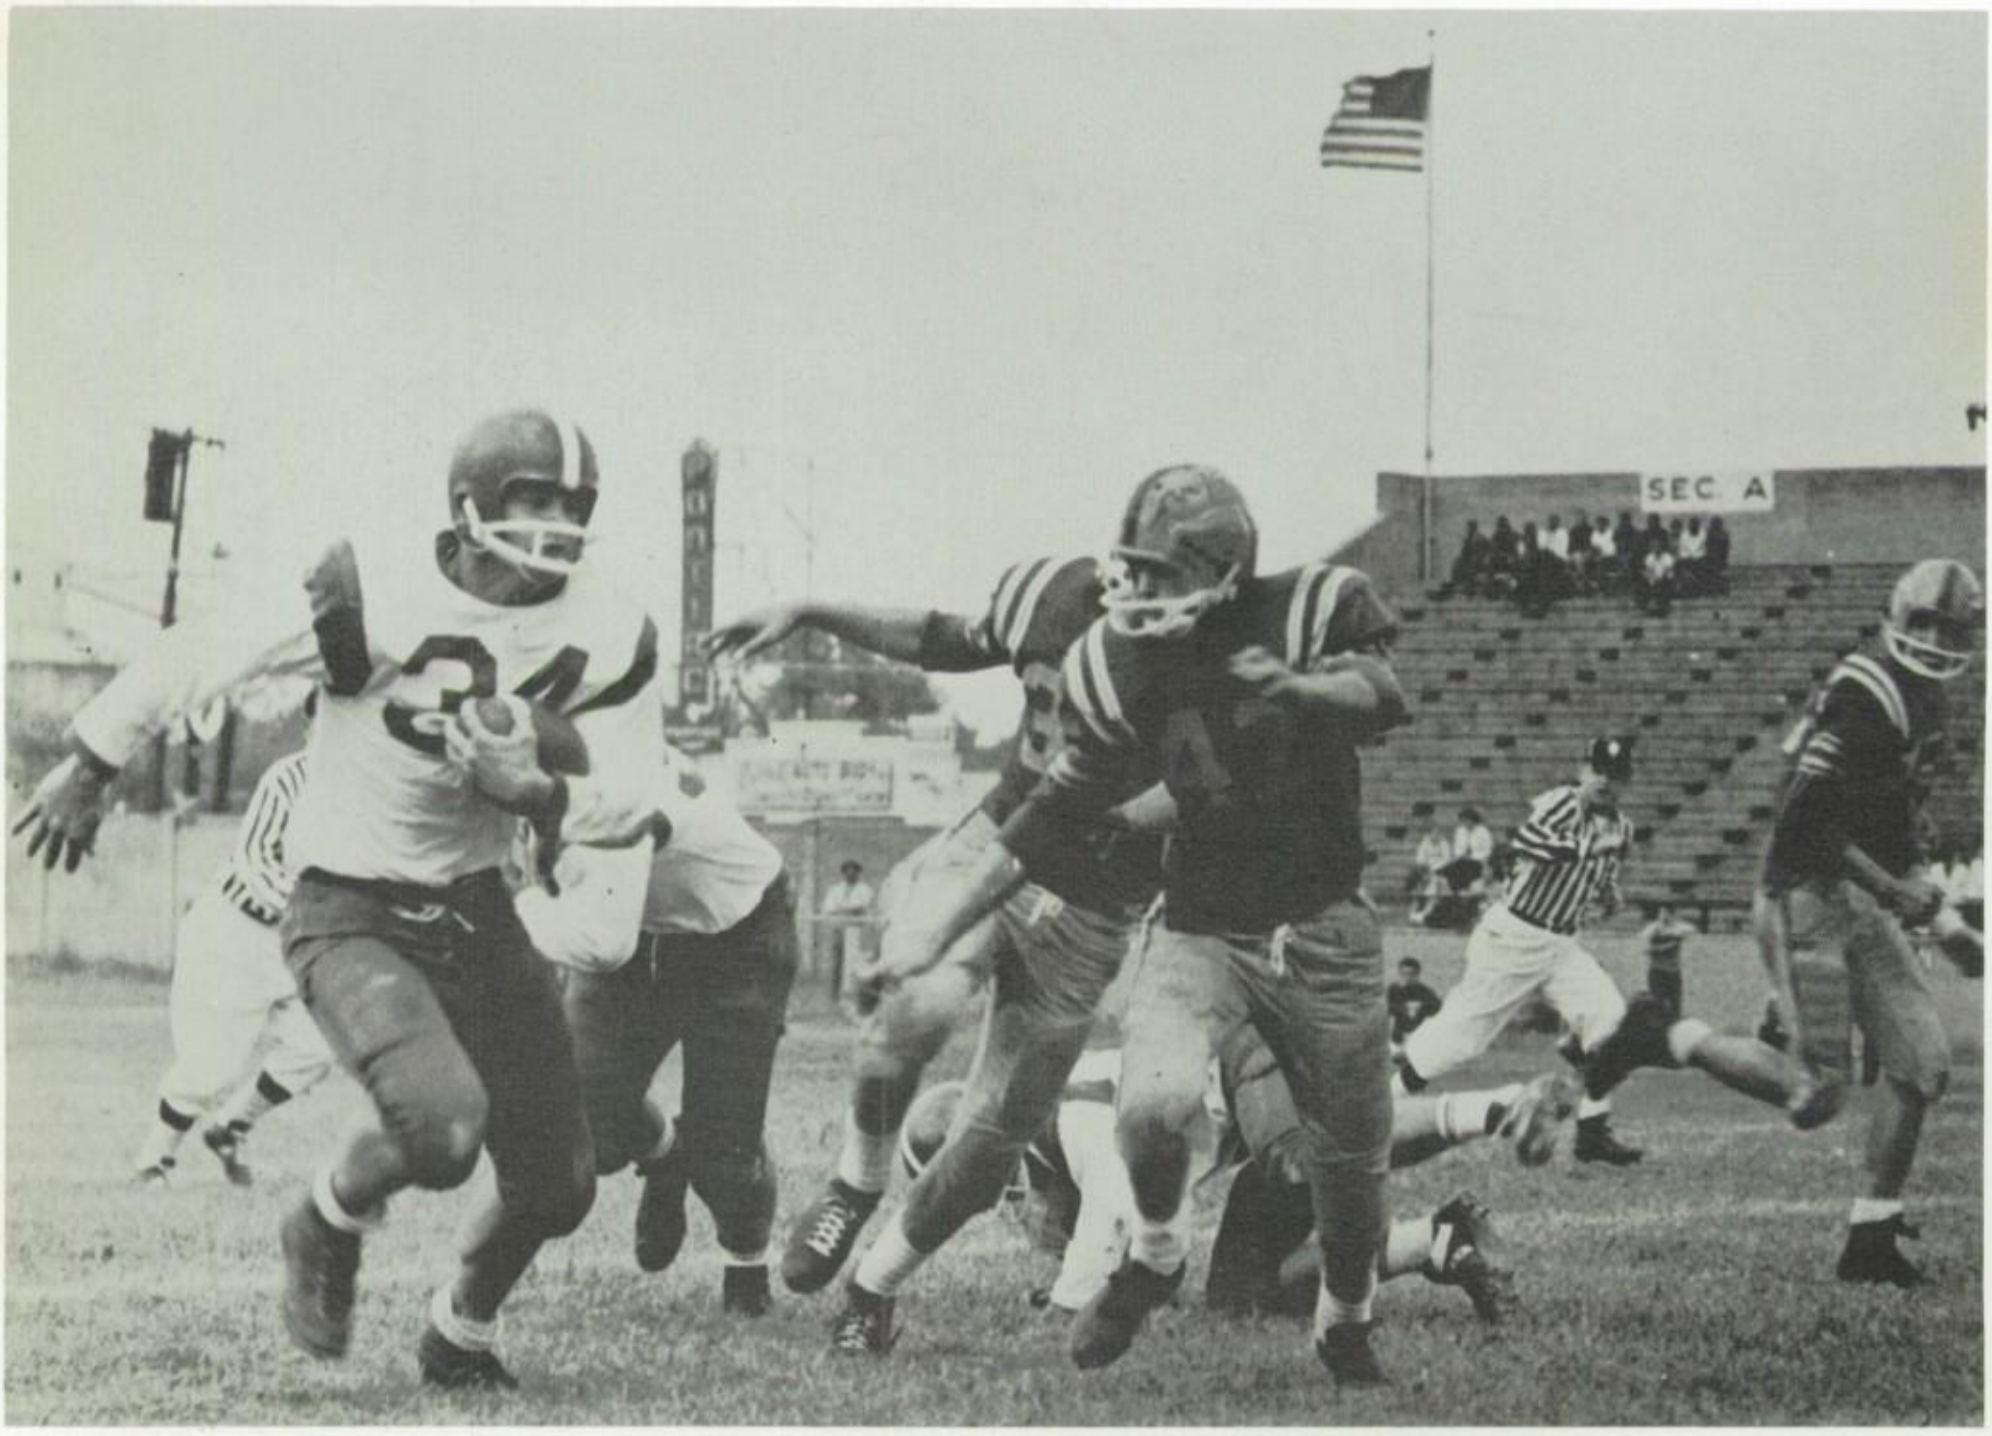
Bremer fades, drawing a bead on his receivers.

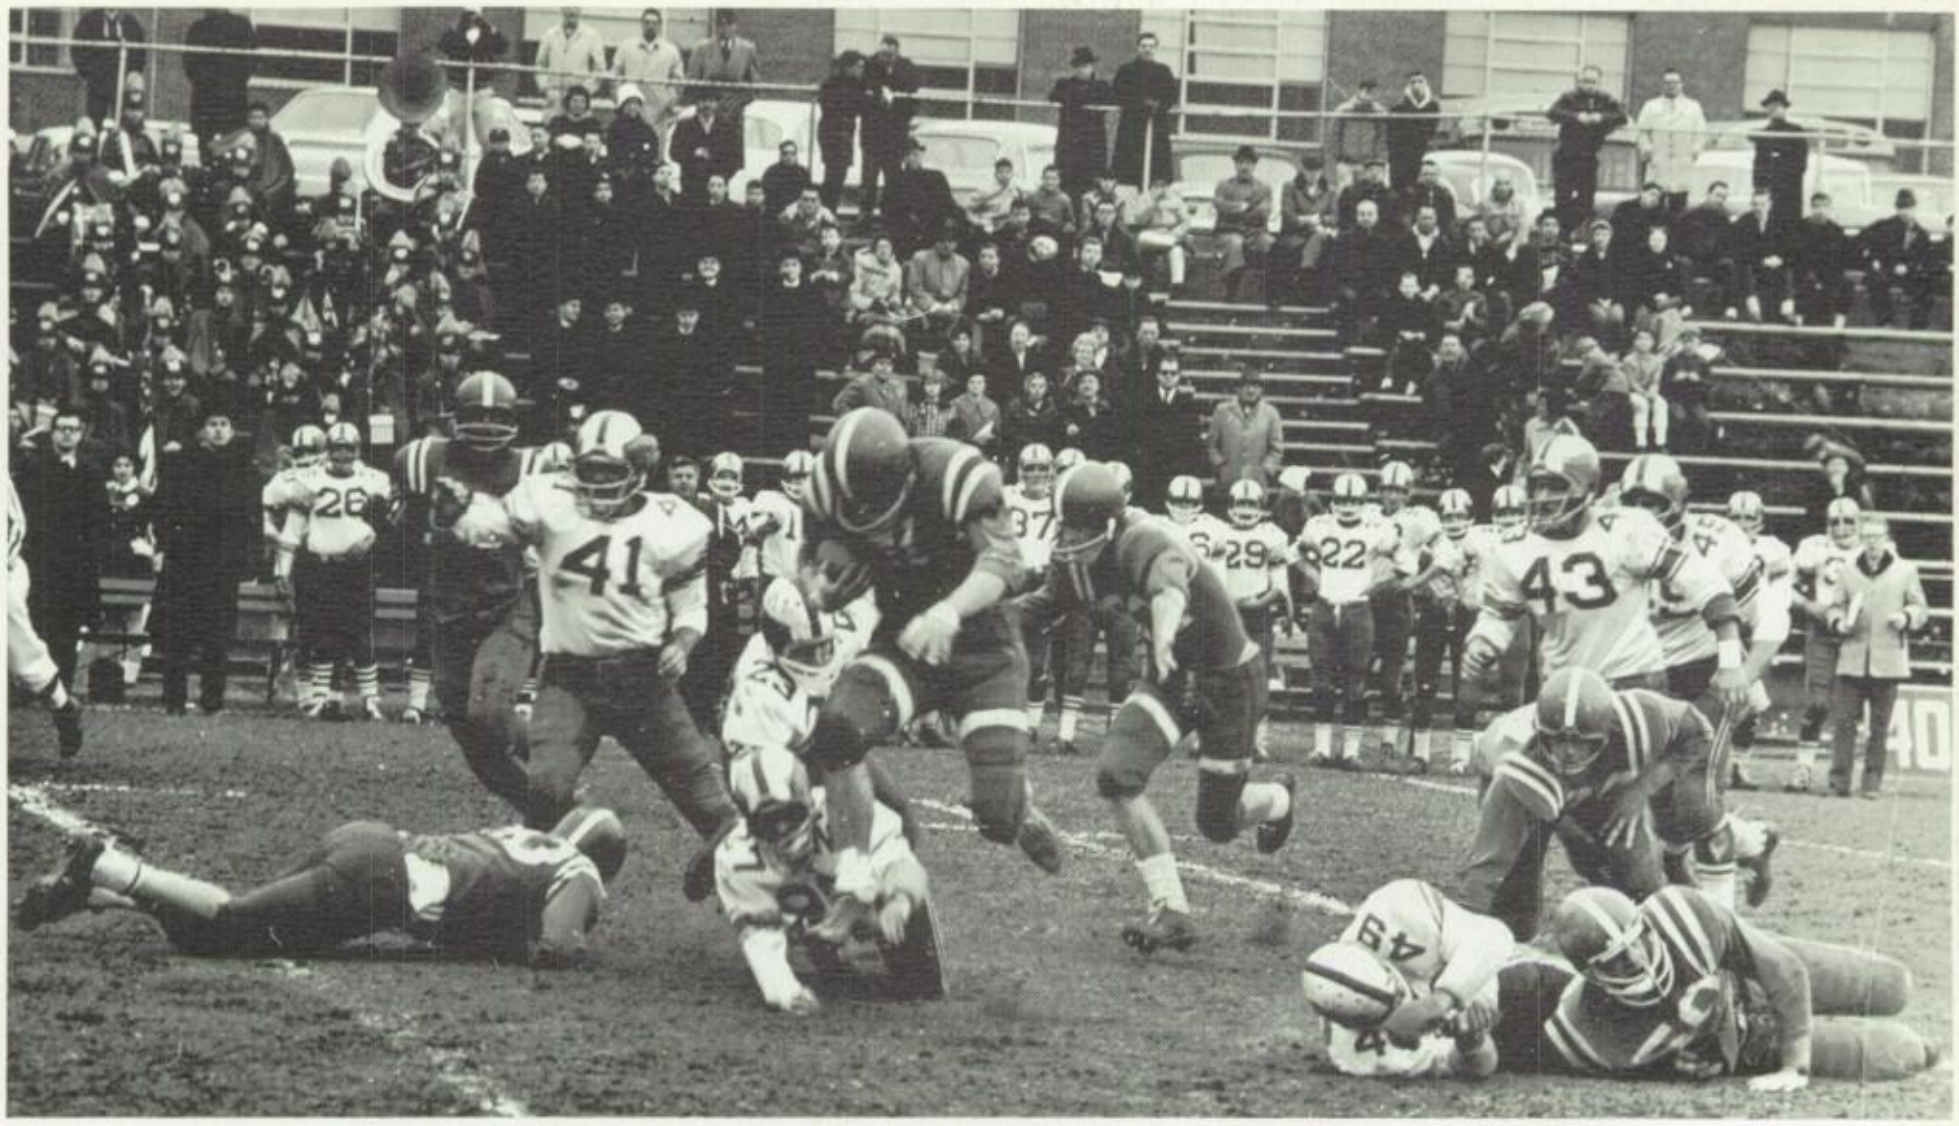
ATTACK

A hard-nosed running attack, led by a strong charging line, characterized this year's offense, which piled up a total of 165 points, including a league leading 122 points in CHSFL competition.

Tom Choquette and Charles "Bubby" Bleakley combined to give Stepinac the most potent 1-2 punch in the area. Tom's slashing runs personified power while "Bubby's" frequent break-away runs gave him second place in the league scoring race. Junior fullback Jim Quinn was impressive all season, both as a jarring blocker and a swift ball carrier. The aerial combination of Rick Bremer to Jim Purcell and Ken Doyen complemented the crushing ground game that resulted in a well balanced attack.

Bleakley strains to evade Pius tacklers.





Choquette rambles for a sizeable gain.

The interior line, responsible for blasting holes in the opposing lines, deserves great praise for their often overshadowed work. Anchoring the line at tackles were Dick Amen, and Chris Markey, a senior transfer from Cleveland. Towering at their guard positions were John Montanaro and Bob Hyland. John Longhi, a junior, held down the center position. Paul Scarcello and Jim Duffy, both of whom saw a lot of action at guard and tackle, respectively, rounded out this bruising line.

Amen, Montanaro, Hyland, Bleakley, and Choquette gained berths on the All-League team.

CROSS COUNTRY

The initial sprint for the lead.

Weiss and Groark strain to maintain pace.

This year, as they produced one of the finest records in the school's history, the hill and dale men showed the overall depth for which Stepinac is famous with 14 men bettering 15 minutes at Van Cortlandt Park.

In the N.Y.U. meet, the harriers took second against some of the finest competition in the East. Junior Greg Weiss led the Crusaders. On October 13th the team moved to the stony paths of Blue Mountain for the Westchester Coaches' meet. Captain Ray Donaton paced the team to a second place finish. Five days later, back at Van Cortlandt for the Iona Invitational, Rich Pokorny, over an extended course, led the squad in 14:15, and Charlie Francis broke into the scoring to bring the team home in third with a total of 21 trophies. On October 27th in the Bronx-Manhattan-Westchester Sectionals, Es O'Brien headed the Stepinac contingent which finished a close second behind the Mount. Essie's 13:59 effort was the fastest time recorded by a Crusader thinclad this season. Also at the Sectionals, over the tough Van Cortlandt layout, Brian Hernon, Eastern J.V. champ, running varsity, placed with a 14:22. The CHSAA championships closed out the cross-country season. Jim Groark ran a fine 14:05, but the team finished a disappointing sixth.

In addition to the aforementioned harriers, juniors Mark Hutter, Brian Kajowski and Dennis Truett, and soph Tom Martin were awarded varsity letters this year.

Es O'Brien, Rick Pokorny, Ray Donaton, and Greg Weiss received Honorable Mention on the All County squad.

This year's J.V. record was even more impressive. They recorded firsts in the Westchester Coaches' meet, the Iona Invitational, and the Bronx-Manhattan-Westchester Sectionals, seconds in the N.Y.U. meet, the Easterns, and the Catholic High School Championships.

INDOOR

The Crusader track team, long and Eastern power, strengthened its reputation through the fine performance of the 1962-63 squad. Stepinac has always been famous for its depth in the middle distances, and this year was no exception as 4 men shattered the two-minute mark in the 880, and 8 were able to run 52 seconds in the 440.

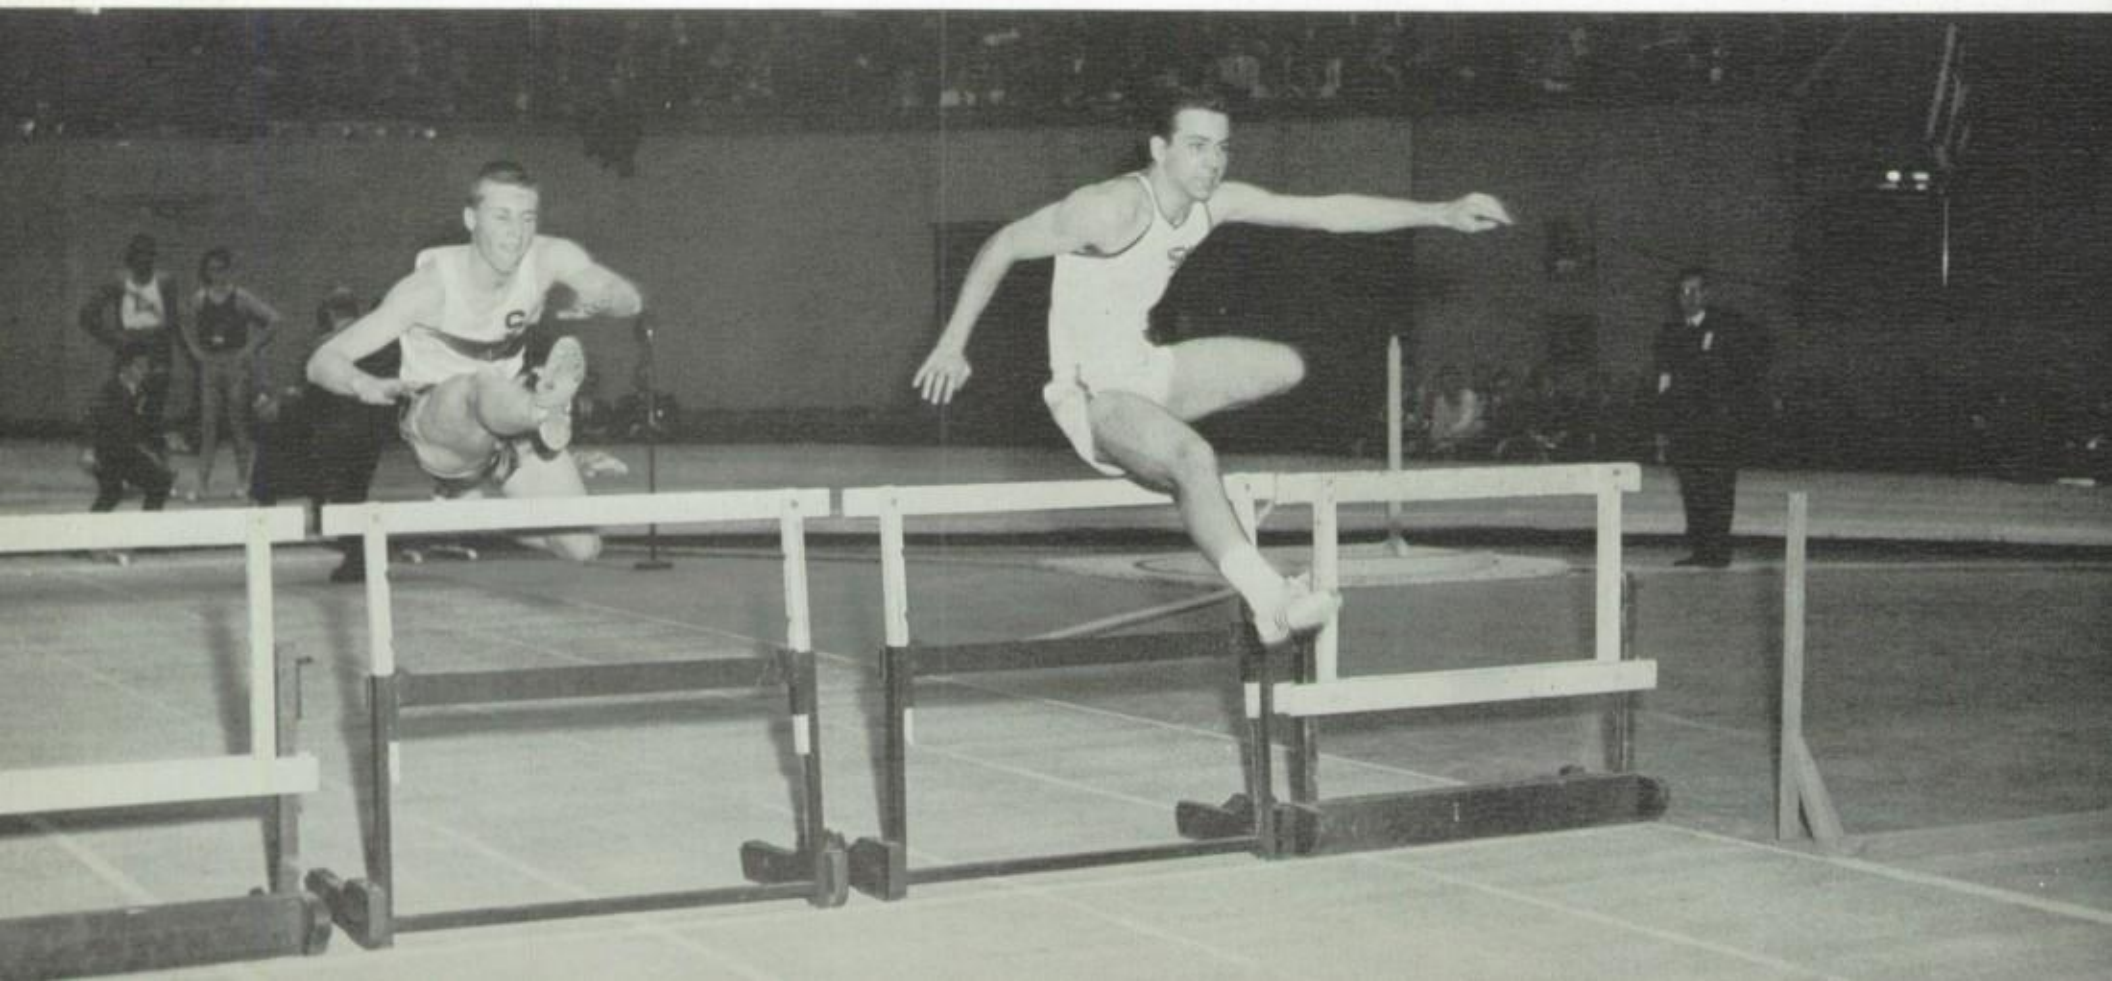
The thinclads' efforts resulted in several school and county records as well as a number of meet records.

A promise of things to come was displayed in the initial outing of the season. In the Providence Four Mile Relay, a meet and school record was set as Stepinac copped first place for the third consecutive year. Es O'Brien's 4:39 leadoff produced a forty yard lead which was increased with each succeeding leg. Ray Donaton's 4:39 anchor leg found him within seconds of lapping the second place team. Brian Hernon and Rich Pokorny were clocked in 4:39 and 4:45 respectively, as they outclassed all competition.

In the CHSAA Relay Carnival the two mile relay, sparked by Donaton's 1:59.1, captured second place with a fine 8:08.5 clocking. The shotput relay gained second place honors, and the 880 relay, anchored by Les Stehmer in 24.1, picked up third place.

Take a left at the first turn . . .

Andres' fine form resulted in a first in the Sectionals.



TRACK

In the Bishop Loughlin Games, the team finished in third place in the large field of 168 schools. The Crusader points came on a third by Ray Donaton in the 1000, a third in the mile relay, with McGlinn's 52.7 leading the way, a third in the two mile relay, and Bob Hyland's fourth place finish in the shot.

The Crusaders displayed their middle distance strength in the Mt. St. Michael Polar Bear Meet, as they captured gold medals in the mile, two mile and distance medley relays.

The squad returned to the indoor warmth of the West Point Field House as they turned in several outstanding clockings against the Army Plebes. Donaton's 1:14.7 created a new school 600 record. Victories were recorded by Brian Hernon, with a 2.20.1 in the 1000, Jim Groark in the two mile run, and by the two mile relay. The mile relay, sparked by Jack Cochran's 52.1 leadoff and Mike McGlinn's 52.1 anchor, turned in a notable 3:30.9 while losing to a crack Plebe foursome.

Another fine performance was turned in by the squad as they took second place among the 171 schools competing in the Cardinal Hayes Games. Ray Donaton set a school record in a strong 1000 yd. field placing second in 2:19.5. The mile relay of Jack Cochran, Steve Andres, Mike McGlinn and Jim Fortier, powered by Fortier's 52.0 anchor leg, sped to victory as they posted a 3:31.5 clocking.

scoring was completed by Bob Hyland's fourth place shot put toss of 52'3".

In the St. Francis Games, the team totaled 12 points in finishing third among 174 schools. The two mile relay garnered first place in a relatively slow 8:13.0. The mile relay picked up two points with a fourth place finish. Bob Hyland and Tom Choquette accounted for five points, placing third and fourth, respectively, in the shot.

The N.Y.U. Meet saw two school records set as the Crusader's 10 points resulted in a fourth place finish in a field of 150 schools. Brian Hernon smashed Donaton's still fresh 1000 yd. standard, stopping the watches in 2:19.3. Jack Cochran flashed to a school record in the 300, as his 33.4 was good for fifth place. Single points were also gained by Choquette's 54'7" shot toss, by Donaton in the 600, and by Jim Groark in the two mile run.

The tracksters avenged last year's defeat as they captured the Bronx-Manhattan-Westchester Sectional Championship defeating arch-rival Hayes for the fourth time in five years. The point production was paced by the shot put corps, as the weightmen gained 13 out of 15 points in the event. Tom Choquette, Soph George Allen, Bob Hyland, and Tom Kramer finished first, third, fourth, and fifth in near sweep. A meet record was set by Jim Groark in the 2 mile run with a winning time of 10:00.7. Steve Andres took the 60 yd. high hurdles, Donaton swept the 440 field, and the two mile relay also set a meet record as they outran the opposition to complete the gold medal performances. Jack Cochran produced another fine sprint clocking with a second place 30.6 school record in the 280. Brian Hernon took second place in the half, running 2:00.5. Fourth place points were garnered by Jack McGovern in the 50, Rich Pokorny in the mile, and by the 880 and mile relays.

The Catholic Championship eluded the Crusaders, as they placed second behind defending champ, Archbishop Molloy. The team was dealt a crushing blow as Jack Cochran was disqualified for stepping out of his lane in the 280. His apparent second place finish would have contributed 4 points toward the championship. With the first place trophy still within reach, th two mile relay could finish no better than fourth, thu crushing any hope of victory. However, the Crusaders aggregate of 23 points was the result of some out standing performances. Choquette and Hyland picke up second and fourth in the shotput, recording persona bests of 56'1" and 54'2", respectively. Silver medal were taken by Donaton in the 440, and the six la relay team. Third place finishers were Hernon in th 880, and Groark in the two mile. Steve Andres com pleted the scoring with a fifth place in the hurdles

Perhaps the finest testimony to the fine record o the 1962-63 indoor season can be seen in their per formance in the Invitational Races which are hel throughout the season.

The mile relay unit captured three of four majo titles while the two mile relay toured the twenty-tw lap route in 8:02.5 for a second place finish in th Nationals, and the medley relay foursome took secon in the Millrose Games.

Donaton drives past leader on his way to Sectional 440 Crown.

In the National Two Mile Relay the team composed of Pokorny, Lamb, Donaton, and Hernon, carried by Donaton's 1:58.5 third leg, finished a strong second behind Cardinal Hayes.

Despite breaking their own meet record the Crusaders found themselves in second place in the special mile relay at the Sophomore Championships.

In the Mayors Meet Suburban Mile Relay, the team of Donaton, Lamb, Cochran, and Hernon again broke their own meet record but this time their efforts produced first place trophies. Back to back legs of 51.8 and 51.4 by Cochran and Hernon insured the victory.

The squad moved to Madison Square Garden, where they picked up two gold medals. In the N.Y.A.C. Games, Mike McGlinn replaced Lamb, as the team ran 3:28.1 for first place. Lamb rejoined the team in the 1C 4a's and they improved to 3:27.7, the fastest Catholic High School time in the country this year.

The team which had such a successful indoor season, looked forward to the outdoor season confident of defending their Penn Relay Championship and overtaking Molloy in their bid for the Catholic Championship.

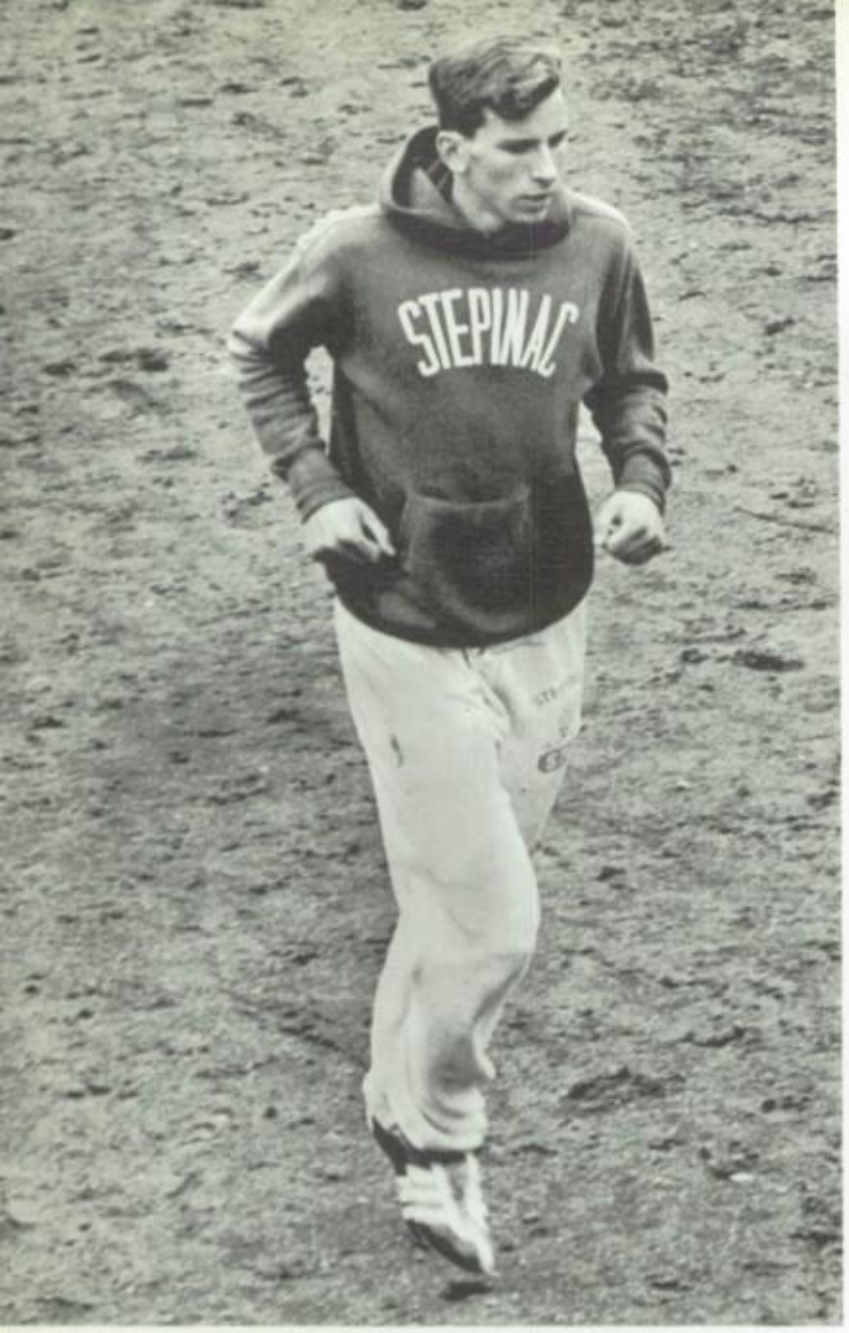
OUTDOOR TRACK...



Bert Redler is caught thinking about the Penn Relays and that 50.0 anchor leg.

The two-mile relay opened its quest for a second consecutive Penn Relay Title with a victory in the Queens-Iona Relays. Lamb, Groark, Donaton, and Hernon convinced Molloy that they had no intention of losing the first place watches at Penn, as they defeated the Stanners by 15 yards.

The team travelled to Philadelphia the following week, where they realized their first goal of the young season. Jack Lamb's 1:59.9 leadoff produced a lead which was never relinquished as Jim Groark ran 2:01.6; Ray Donaton widened the gap with a 1:58.9 leg; and Brian Hernon clocked 1:59.1 to stop the watches in a fine 7:59.5.

While the two mile relay was collecting all the headlines, the mile relay also garnered their share of honors. The quartet picked up first places at the CHSAA Relay Carnival, and the All Hallows Games, and a third at Queens-Iona as a pre-Penn warmup. Their 3:26.2 effort was good for second place, and the second fastest time in the school's history. Jack Cochran lead off with a 51.4, and passed the stick to Steve Andres with a 5 yard lead. Andres and Mike McGlinn ran identical times of 52.4, although losing the lead on the exchange. Bert Redler, a very promising junior, ripped off a 50.0 anchor leg, just missing the winner at the tape.

Tom Choquette completed the fine performances with a fourth place finish against the best in the East. His personal best, 56′ 2″, was within a foot of the old Carnival record.

Having achieved their first goal the team moved ahead with vigor and confidence, in search of further titles and honors.

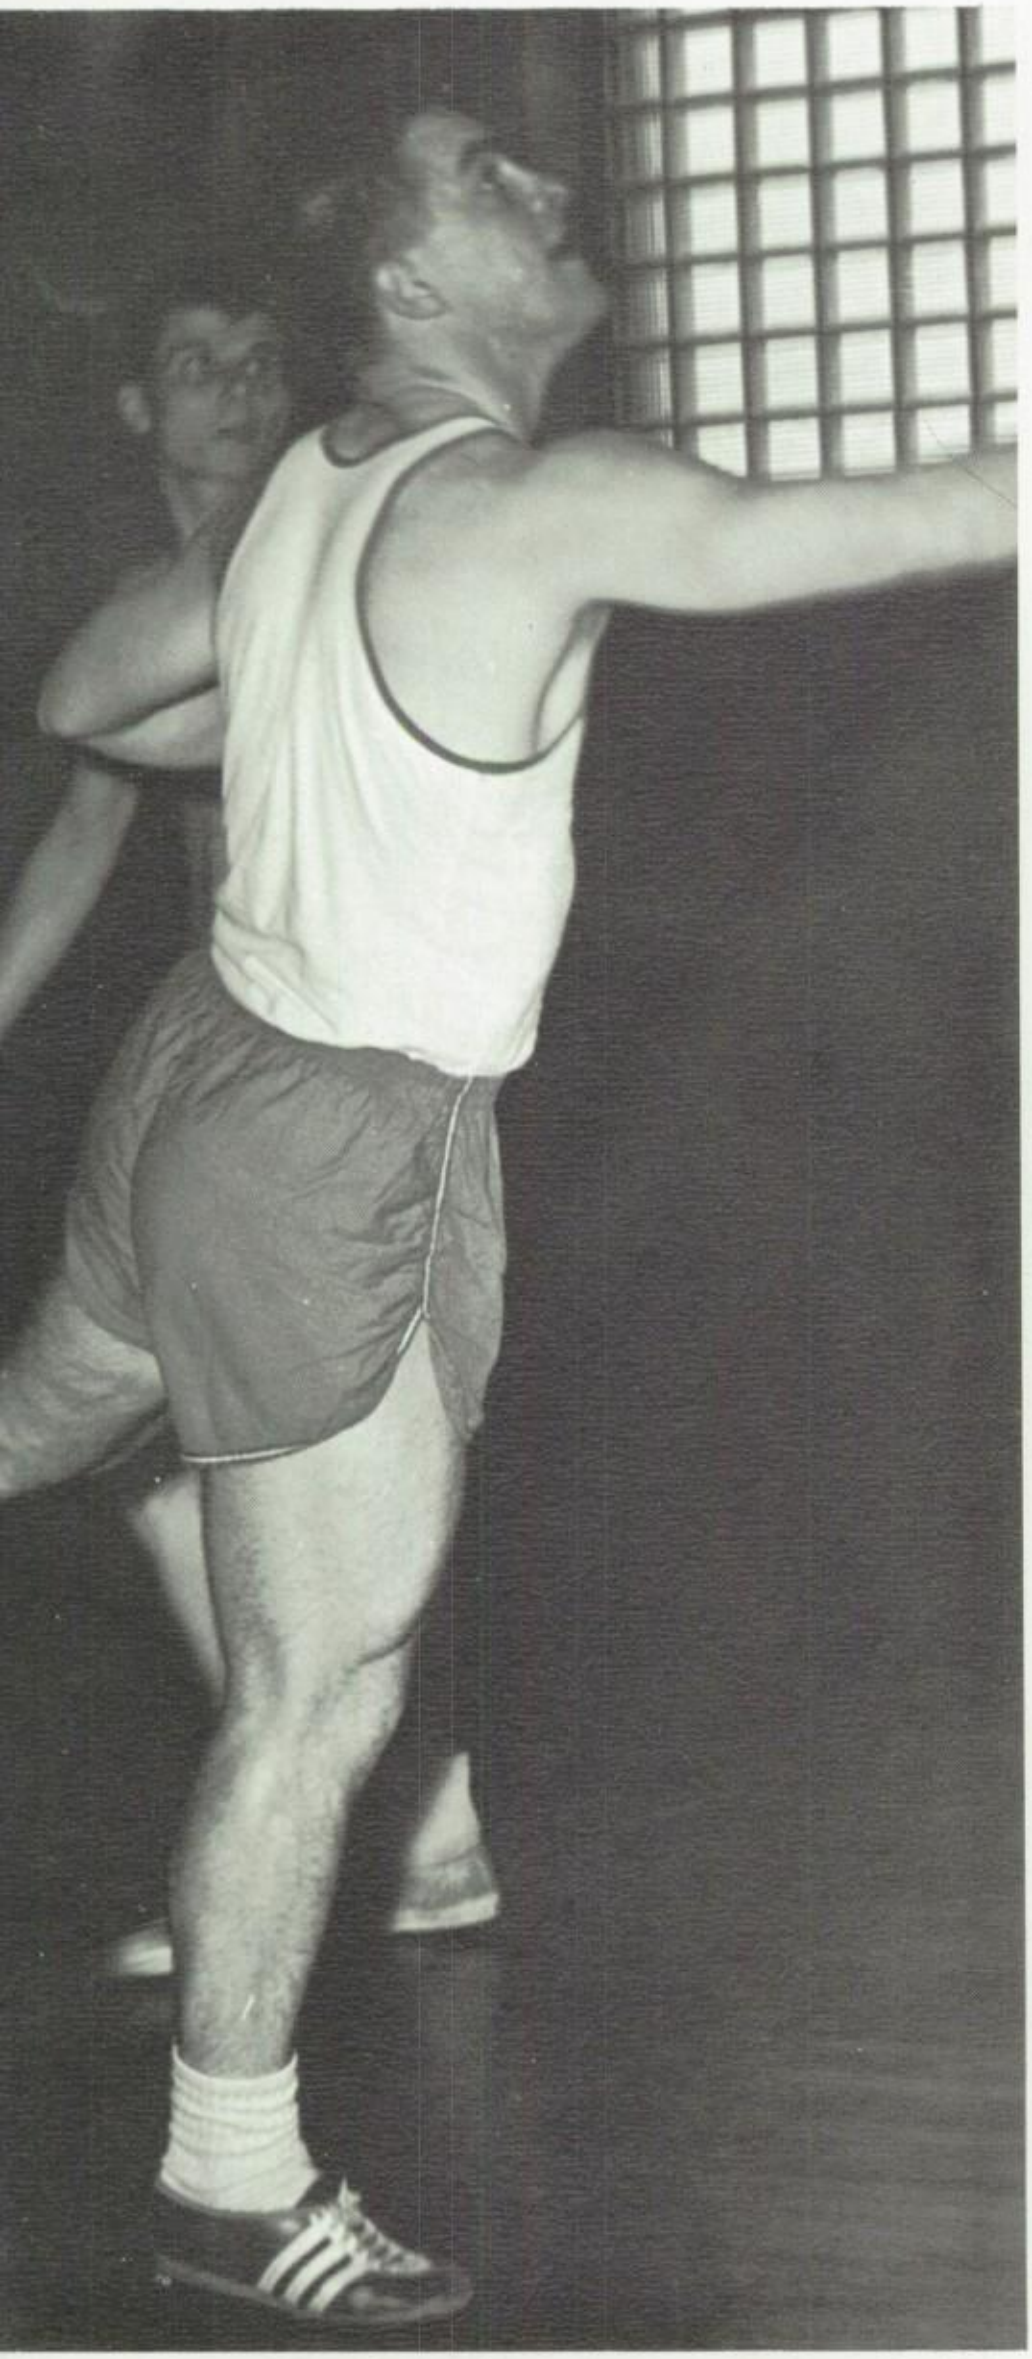
Bob Hyland and Tom Choquette were big men this season, both physically, and in the point department. Their consistently fine shot putting helped to make the campaign so successful.



Tom follows the shot, as Jim Hahn looks on in awe.

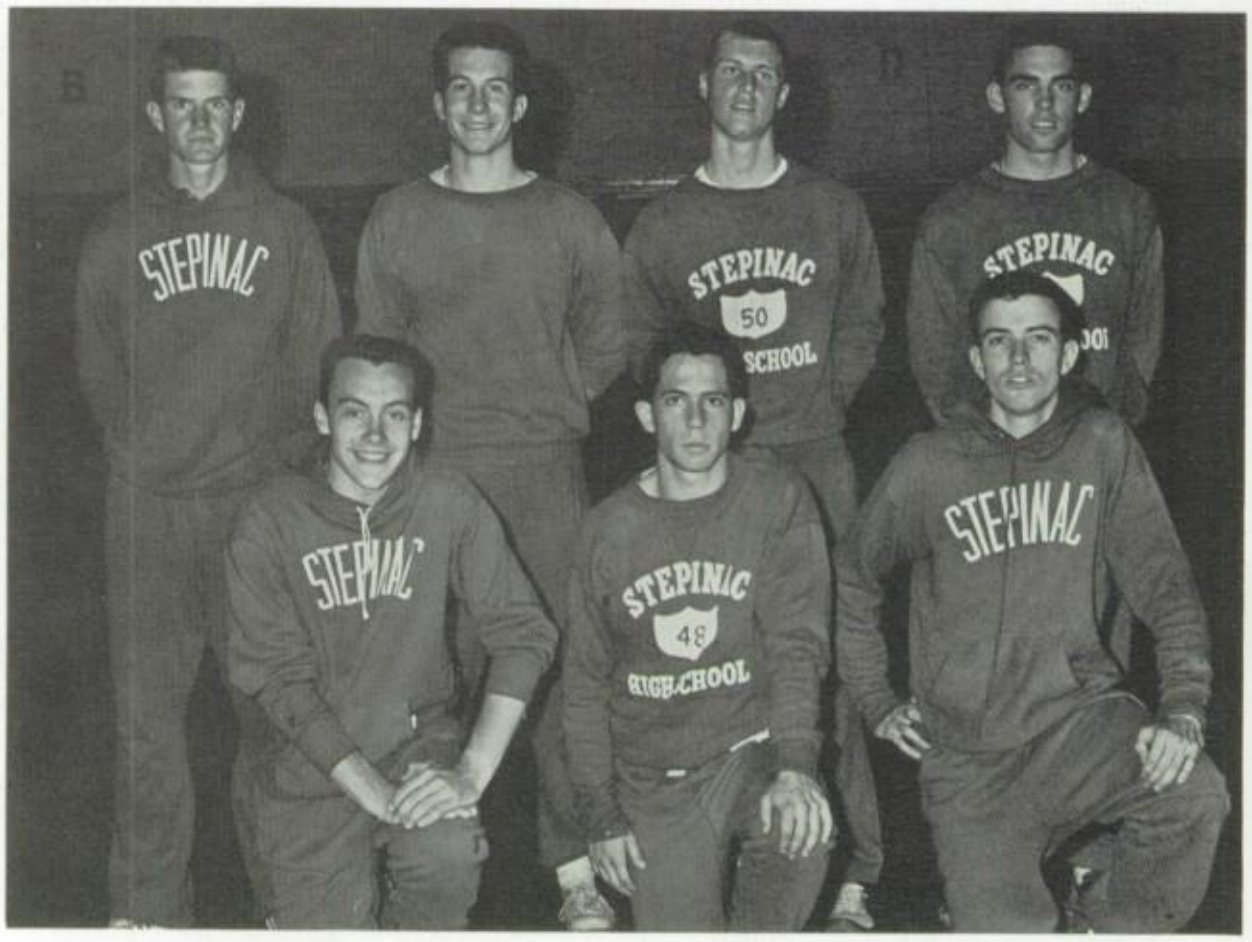
These are champions? Despite the holes in their sweatsuits and flats, the two mile relay managed to capture the plaque, symbolic of the High School Championship of America. Donaton and Lamb are repeaters from the 1962 team, which was also victorious.



The mile relay team was a consistent scorer throughout the year. With Cochran, McGlinn and Redler as semi-permanent members, and Malone, Stehmer, Andres, Fortier and Mooney alternating weekly, the quartet seldom failed to place high.

The track team, with Mr. Krebs, poses before practice.

A CHAMPION

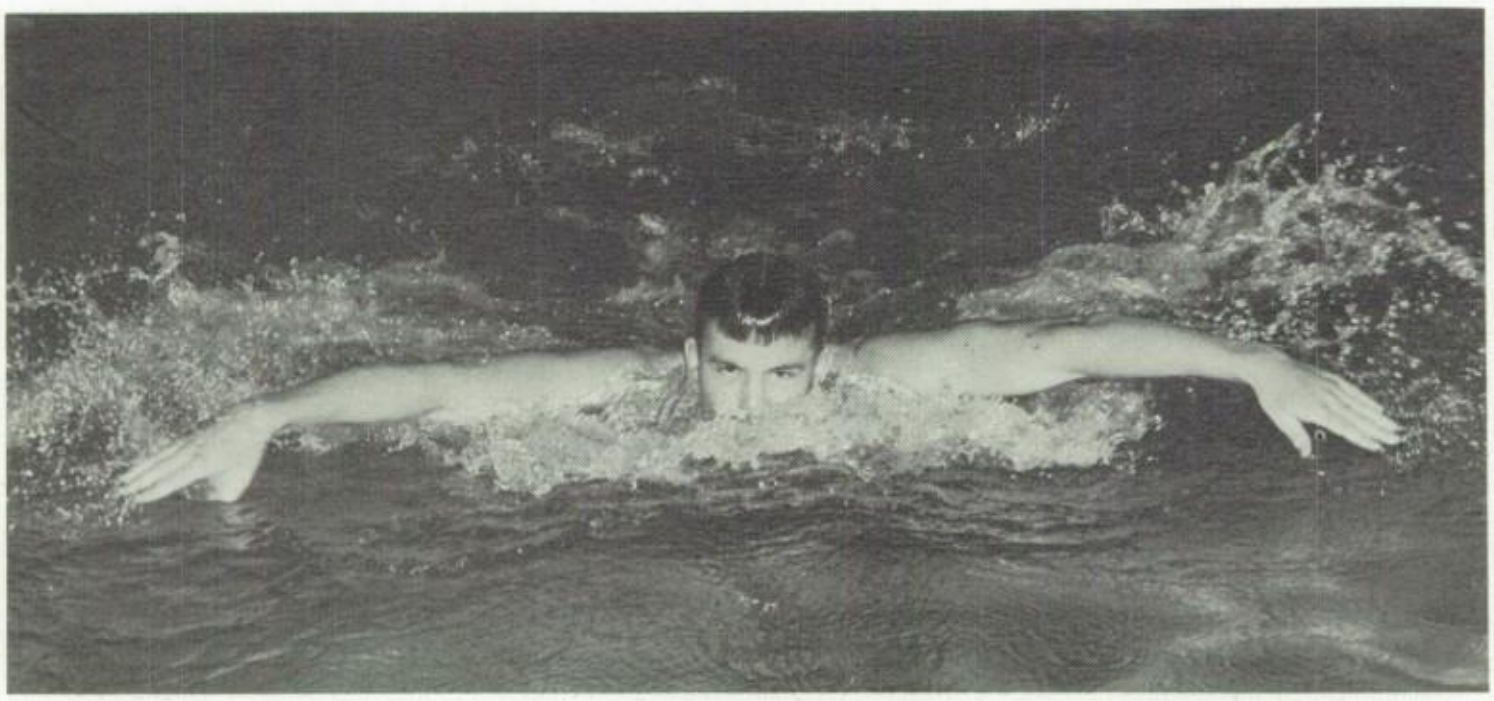
Eyes straight ahead, John waits for the gun.

It is most unfortunate that swimming has been excluded from Stepinac's sports system. Not often is a high school honored with a national champion. Yes, John Collins, a soft-spoken senior, last summer thrashed his way to an A.A.U. record in the 100 yard butterfly, with a clocking of 55.7 seconds. He also is a member of a national record-holding medley relay team.

Last year, swimming under the Crusader emblem, in the National Championships, John personally accounted for more points than any school in the Metropolitan area.

John's talents are not confined to the butterfly alone; he is the Metropolitan Senior 200 yard individual medley champion. This race, which combines all four strokes, is perhaps the most gruelling of all in swimming. John has recorded times among the top 15 in the nation in the 200 yard and 200 meter butterfly, and is ranked in the top 20 swimmers in the world in the 200 yard individual medley!

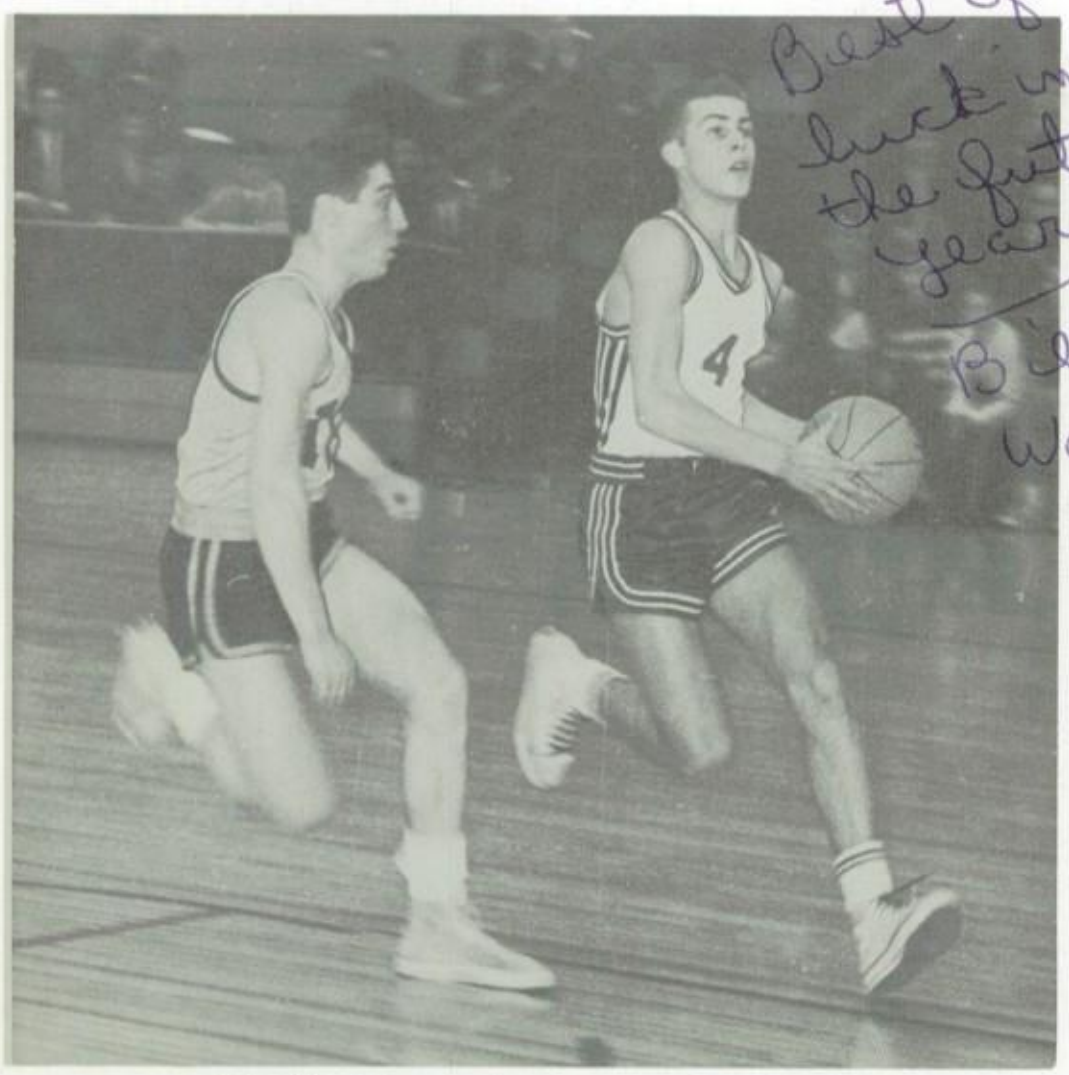
Therefore, it is with great pride that the editors of the Shepherd congratulate John Collins for his great accomplishments and the glory he has brought to Stepinac, and wish him continued success next year at Indiana University, the current National A.A.U. swimming champions.



John nears the first turn in the 200 yard butterfly.

BASKETBALL

THE SEASON



Billy Walsh fast breaks after a steal against Hayes.

The 1963 edition of the Stepinac basketball squad rallied to post a respectable 8-11 ledger after winning only three of their first 12 games. The cagers, in pre-season contests, showed great promise by knocking off many of the top teams in the county. They also trounced the alumni 74-62. However, they were stalled for the first half of the season by the loss of Billy Walsh, top scorer and spark plug. Coach Nat Volpe spent this period juggling players in an effort to uncover a winning combination.

The initial win of the campaign came in the fifth game, at home, against Scarsdale, 37-34. Then, after a close loss to the Mount, the Crusaders nipped New Rochelle, 45-43.

The winning surge began in our rematch with Cardinal Hayes, who had previously beaten us by 30 points. After defeating Hayes, 56-49, in the second meeting, we proceeded to end La Salle's 33 game league victory streak, 56-48; we then conquered the Mount 71-67 in overtime. One more win against Regis necessitated a playoff against Hayes for a Division I berth in the CHSBL Championships. Stepinac rallied from a 12 point deficit in the first period to emerge the victor, 62-61.

The Volpemen could not, however, maintain their momentum and lost to Bishop Loughlin, 57-44, in the first round of the City playoffs.

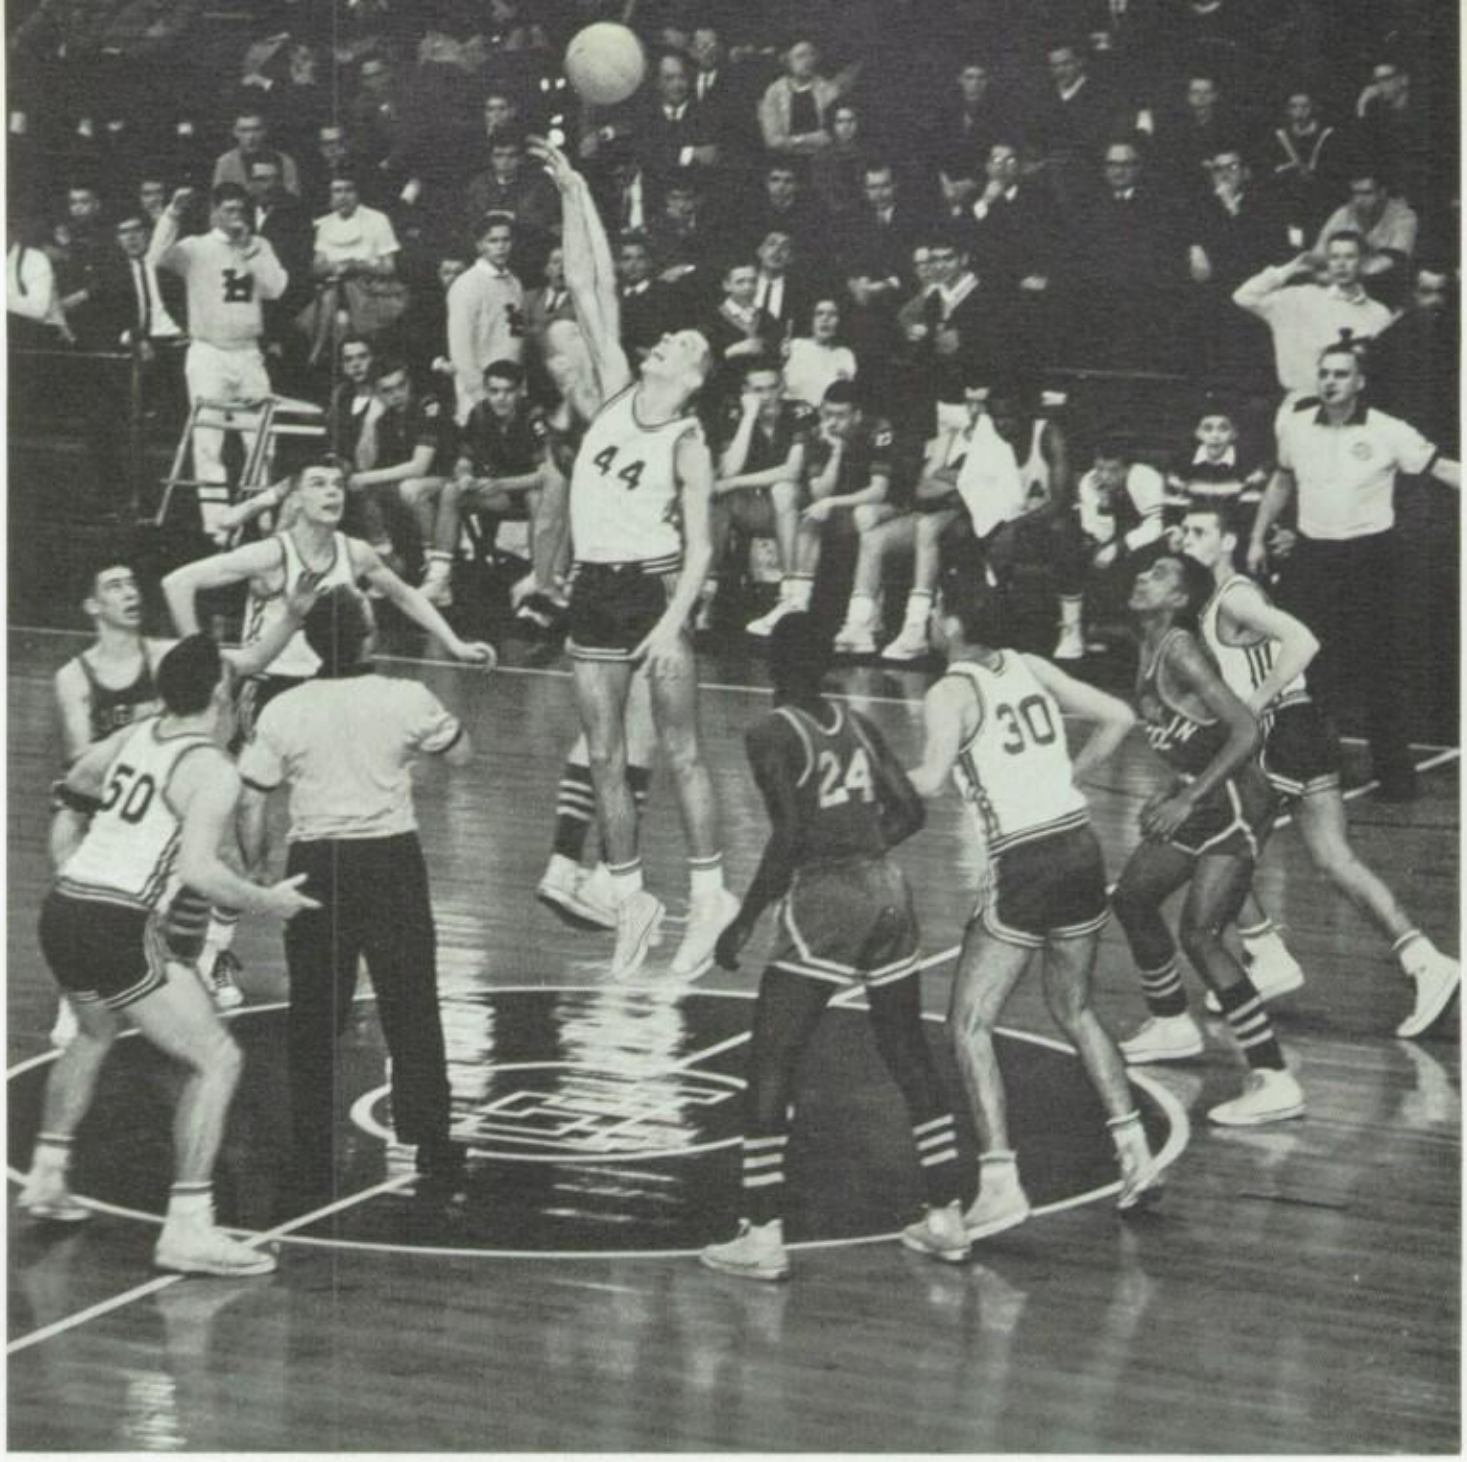
STARS and STARTERS



Playing in the tough Division I of the CHSBL, against high school All-Americans such as 7'1" Lew Alcindor, the quintet mainly responsible for our second place division finish was made up of four juniors and one senior.

Senior and co-captain Jim Purcell, an All-County Honorable mention selection, was a dependable scorer and the steadying influence on the unit. High scoring Billy Walsh could usually be counted on for twenty points a game. Often overlooked were his great defensive moves, for instance his seven steals against Scarsdale. Jumping jack John Purcell, an All-City Honorable Mention pick, accounted for most of the board strength. Jim Hahn, possessing perhaps the finest shot on the team, and Tom Prisciantelli, rounded out the starting five.

Ed Farrell acquired the alias "Fox" for his heroics in coming off the bench to lead many a surge, such as the crucial second Mount game in which he sank two game-tying foul shots and then "stuffed" the Mount's final shot. Ken Doyen played a similar role, being called on often to capture rebounds in the late stages of the game. Kevin Kinsella and Kerry Smith also played a great deal early in the season.

Pete Mastropolo rounds the initial sack.

In defense of last year's CHSAA championship, Coach Joseph Sullivan will send a team composed mainly of juniors against its league and Westchester rivals. Everyone associated with the team realizes that it will be a difficult task to repeat last season's feat, but feels that the team has the ability to do so. Except for the pitching, the team has not been seriously hurt by last year's graduation.

A tight infield will be led by last year's leading batter and this year's captain Tom Capowski. Paul Mastropolo at third base, Frank Granger at second, and Jim Duffy at the initial sack, round out the infield. They are backed up by John Settino, Bill Delaney, and the versatile Greg Carson. The catching chores will be handled by veteran Billy Austin and John McAvoy. A tenacious trio of Peter Mastropolo, Frank McGrath, and Billy Cook is well equipped to chase down any flies which may come its way in the outfield.

The men on the mound are John Carroll, Kenny Northcutt, Andy Anderson, Bob Hyland, and Bill Cook. This staff has not had any varsity experience, with the exception of Carroll, who pitched and won a single game last season. Thus, the problem is evident. If it is overcome by bringing the quality of the pitching to the same level as the Crusaders' hitting and fielding, Stepinac may again find itself in the city playoffs.

The fact that only three seniors are on this year's team gives assurance that Stepinac will be enjoying baseball supremacy in the future.

TENNIS

One of the best in school history, this year's tennis team had, as usual, a very successful season. Richie Palmer, a sophomore, capably filled the No. 1 spot for the Crusader netmen, and led his team to a Fall record of 5-2, the only losses at the hands of Xavier Military and Fordham Prep. The other members of the squad included seniors Bill Young, John Callahan, Mark Buckley, Greg Fitzmaurice, and Clint Garber. Ready to step in to the top spots next year are: juniors Pete Gahagan, Gary Cochrane, Bill Lovas, and sophomore Ken Silbernagel. All due credit must also be given to Fr. This year, the rifle team, coached by Fr. Thomas McCaffrey, enjoyed the finest season in its history. Led by seniors Pete Purcell, Frank Zak, Clint Garber, Jack Murray, and Bill Knoth, the riflemen won all but three of their twenty-four matches. They chalked up their forty-first consecutive league win in four years, with ten wins and no losses in the Westchester Interscholastic Rifle League, competing against such teams as Scarsdale, Mamaroneck, New Rochelle, and Mount Vernon. They excelled also in extra-league competition, defeating Peekskill Military Academy, Croton, and Ossining, twice. Also to fall were the CCNY and St. John's freshmen teams, Seton Hall, LaSalle Military Academy, and Brunswick, the top New England team. The only rifle team defeats were at West Point and at Xavier. Xavier was rated the top High School team in the country by the N.R.A. postal matches.

A number of records was set by our marksmen this year. A Westchester league record of 196 was set by Frank Zak in November. Pete Purcell shot 391 out of 400 against Seton Hall, and was first in the Mississippi Rifle tournament with 389. Each turned in a 383 in the N. R. A. Sectionals this year, leading the four man team with Garber (369) and Lachowicz (348) to first place. In the Winchester Rifle Tournament, at New Haven, the largest indoor meet in the nation, the four-man team of Zak, Purcell, Garber, and Lachowicz missed first place by one point. The team average was 190.

The Bowling Team, under the expert coaching of Msgr. Fitzgerald, had an explosive and exciting season. This year's team was one of the finest in Stepinac's history. The team, which finished second in the W. P. P. L., put up a grueling fight from the first match right up to the last game. The Bowling Team broke two school records: High Team Series, 2,870 (an average of 191 per player) and High Team Game of 1000 (an average of 200 per player). The averages for the starting five were: Captain Bruce Thomas (185); Scotty McCalister (176); Tony Colucci (174); Nick Librandi (173); Bob Lovas (170). The top scores of the season were: Bruce Thomas (256-668); Tony Colucci (219-629); Scotty McCallister (214-607). Other high games were: Nick Librandi (214); Bob Lovas (211); Rich Hensel (215). Other substitutes, Al Strati, Rich Hensel, and Bill Balassi, did an excellent job in pitching in when needed to win many a close game. The team's record was a fine 52 wins, 23 losses, thus closing out an outstanding season for the keglers. The Bowling Team very definitely succeeded in carrying forth Stepinac's high honor.

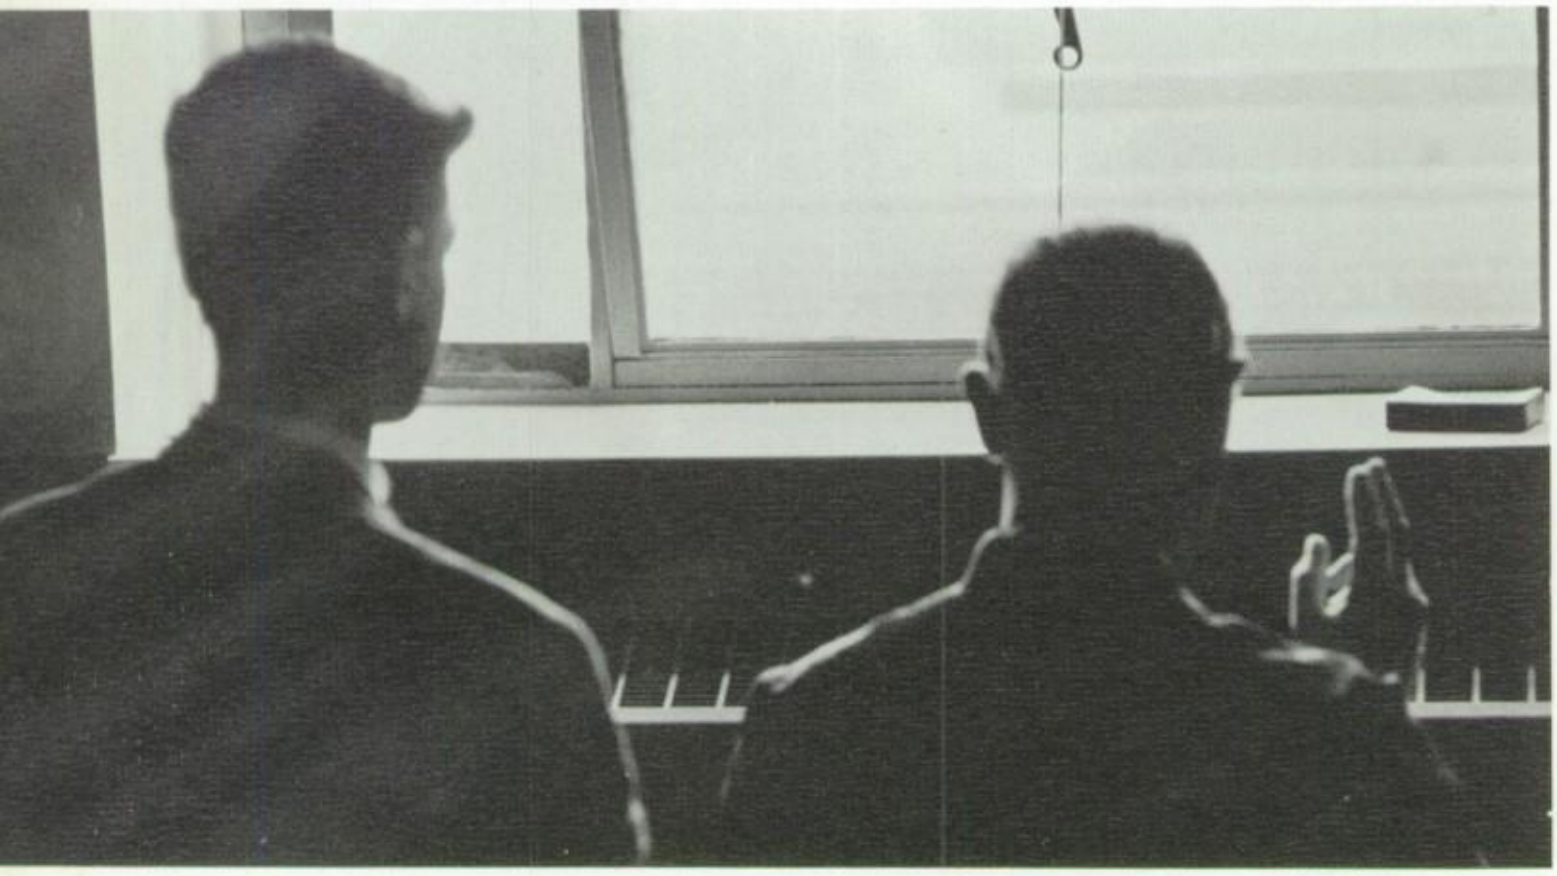
WORSHIP

SCHOOL RETREAT

Alone at a side altar in the Chapel a student begs the grace of God to make a good retreat.

Each student at Stepinac annually makes a three-day retreat. These days of concentrated religious exercises stimulate the spiritual growth of the student. The retreat allows the student to balance his spiritual life with his academic life as a student. The attitudes nurtured in the student during this period give direction to all of his activities here at Stepinac.



In perhaps the most important aspect of the retreat, a student finds consolation in the healing sacrament of Penance.

Retreatants meditate in darkening chapel.

SENIOR RETREAT

Father English, S.J., holds conference in main chapel.

For seniors, the annual closed retreat at the Gonzaga Youth Retreat House is the spiritual highlight of the year. The three days are spent, under the direction of Jesuit Fathers, in religious self-examination, meditation, and prayer. The seniors who made the retreat this year felt that it was the finest spiritual experience of their high school career and a fitting climax to their religious life and training at Stepinac.

The Vocation Triduum served to acquaint the students with the aims, work, and training of the various groups of Religious, and diocesan priests who teach them. Representatives of the various Religious and diocesan groups at Stepinac answered questions and were available for the counseling of those who were interested in the Religious life.

HOLY HOUR

On the eve of the commencement of the Second Vatican Council, a Holy Hour was conducted in the Chapel of the Holy Spirit. Throughout the night the faculty and students of Stepinac joined together in prayer to ask God to bestow His blessing upon this vital ecumenical assemblage at Rome.

Midnight Mass after the Holy Hour.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Altar Boys serve First Friday Mass in gymnasium.

The Altar Society has played a relatively unnoticed but nonetheless vigorous role in religious devotion here at Stepinac. It is the unique purpose of the organization to provide servers for daily Masses and for all special devotions. Under the direction of Father Kennedy, the Society, as a part of its regular routine, trains many students, who show the willingness to learn, in the manner of serving Mass. Membership is open to all students; the only requisite is the individual's personal desire to take a greater part in the Liturgy of the Church.

Altar Boys assist at Benediction in Chapel.

SODALITY

"Sodalities of Our Lady must, therefore, give their members, each in accordance with his condition in life, a formation that will make them capable of being proposed to their equals as examples of Christian living and apostolic zeal." In keeping with this directive of Pope Pius XII, the members of this year's Sodality were ever alert for opportunities to strengthen their own interior life, while maintaining extensive activity in the lay apostolate. Under the direction of Father McDermott, Brother Sabinus, and Brother Jeremias, the three divisions of the Sodality made frequent will-organized visits to St. Agnes' Orthopedic Ward and Cardinal McCloskey Home. These activities helped further Christian perfection through devotion to the Blessed Mother.

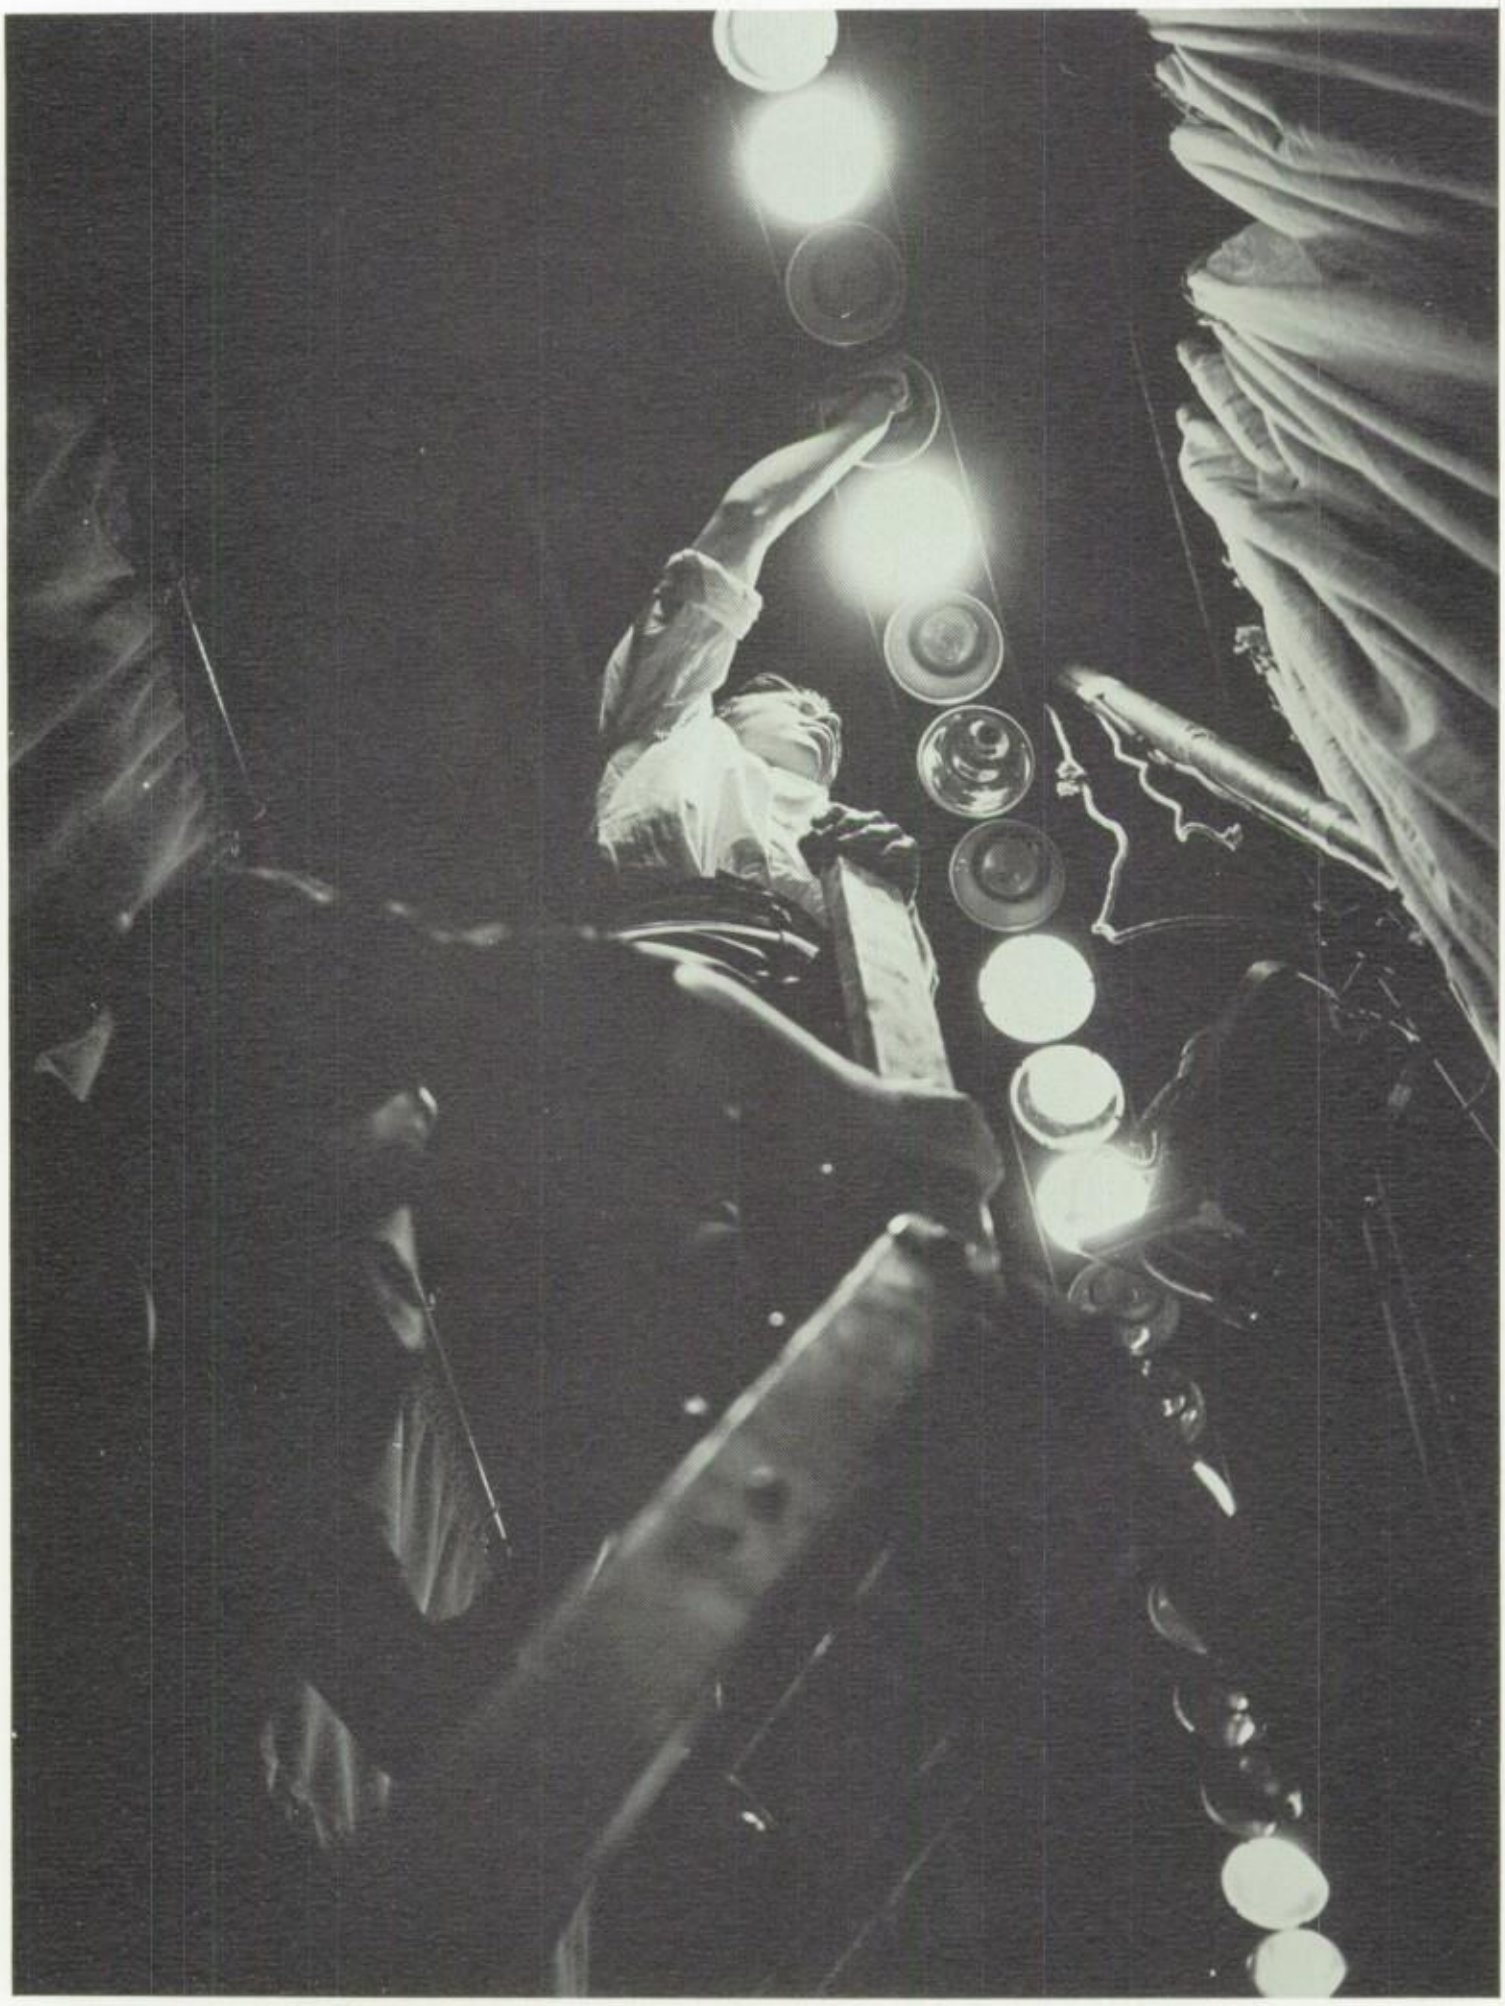
ENTERTAINENT



THE UGLY AMERICAN

Fine lead acting by Joseph D'Arco and Carol Rampel was the key to this successful production.

The 1963 Dramatic Society with the support of Good Counsel Academy presented as their fall production a dramatization of the controversial Lederer and Burdick novel "THE UGLY AMERICAN." Briefly, the story is a portrayal of a wealthy American adventurer and his wife. Homer Atkins, the wealthy American, superbly acted by Joseph D'Arco, together with his wife, splendidly portrayed by the gifted and beautiful Carol Rampel, return to the fictitious country of Sarkhan where they attempt to relieve the poverty of the people and, at the same time, give evidence of the friendly attitude which Americans have toward their foreign friends. Communism enters into the plot with the appearance of two spies portrayed by Mark Buckley and Eileen Gleeson who attempt to sabotage Homer's plans. Other leading roles were held by Thomas Williams, Kevin Fox, Richard Cicatelli, Charles Auker, William Calore, and James Dirksen. Jean Keough, Carolyn DiPrima, Christine Titko, Judi Rigano, and Jimmy Franze did a fine supporting job as the feminine cast.

BYE BYE BIRDIE

The musical talents of 130 students from Stepinac High School and Good Counsel Academy combined to produce one of the finest musical comedies in Stepinac's 13 years of theatrical endeavors. Co-ordinating the dramatic society's activities were Father James Cashman, director, Father William McGann, chorus and orchestra leader, and Mr. Raymond LaBru, director of choreography. The Broadway production, a "just-opened" movie, and several high school and college presentations provided Box Office competition but for the four nights of April 26, 27, and May 3, 4, ticket sales reached a near sell-out.

Dan Donovan wails out on the guitar.

Only through constant practice over a number of months can perfection in such a production be achieved. Weekend, holiday, and sometimes night rehearsals co-ordinate play activity into a systematic program. Each individual must create better movements and strong vocal ability. On these two pages, an almost impossible attempt is made to portray the tremendous amount of work.

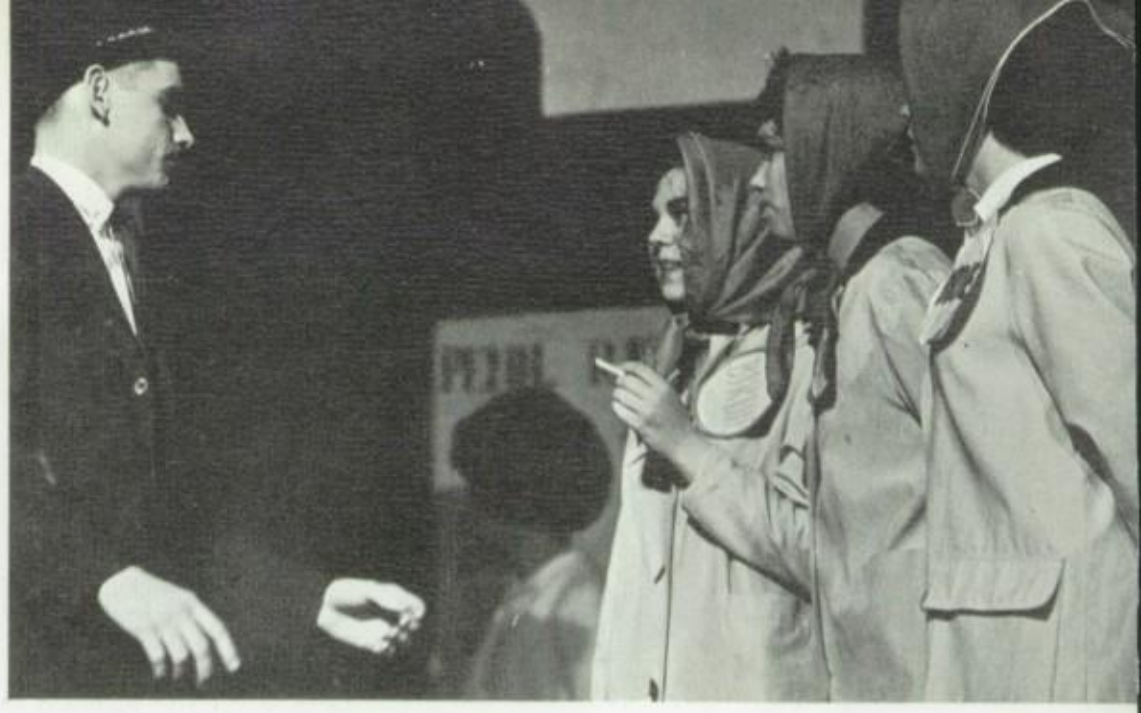
"Oh my baby, oh yeah!"

"Now put some heart into this stuff!"

"You killed me, that's all!"

"It is with great pride and prejudice as well as the usual pomp and . . ."

"What a catch for a convalescent!"



"No smoking till you're fourteen, girls."

He's still using that greasy kid stuff.

OPENING NIGHT

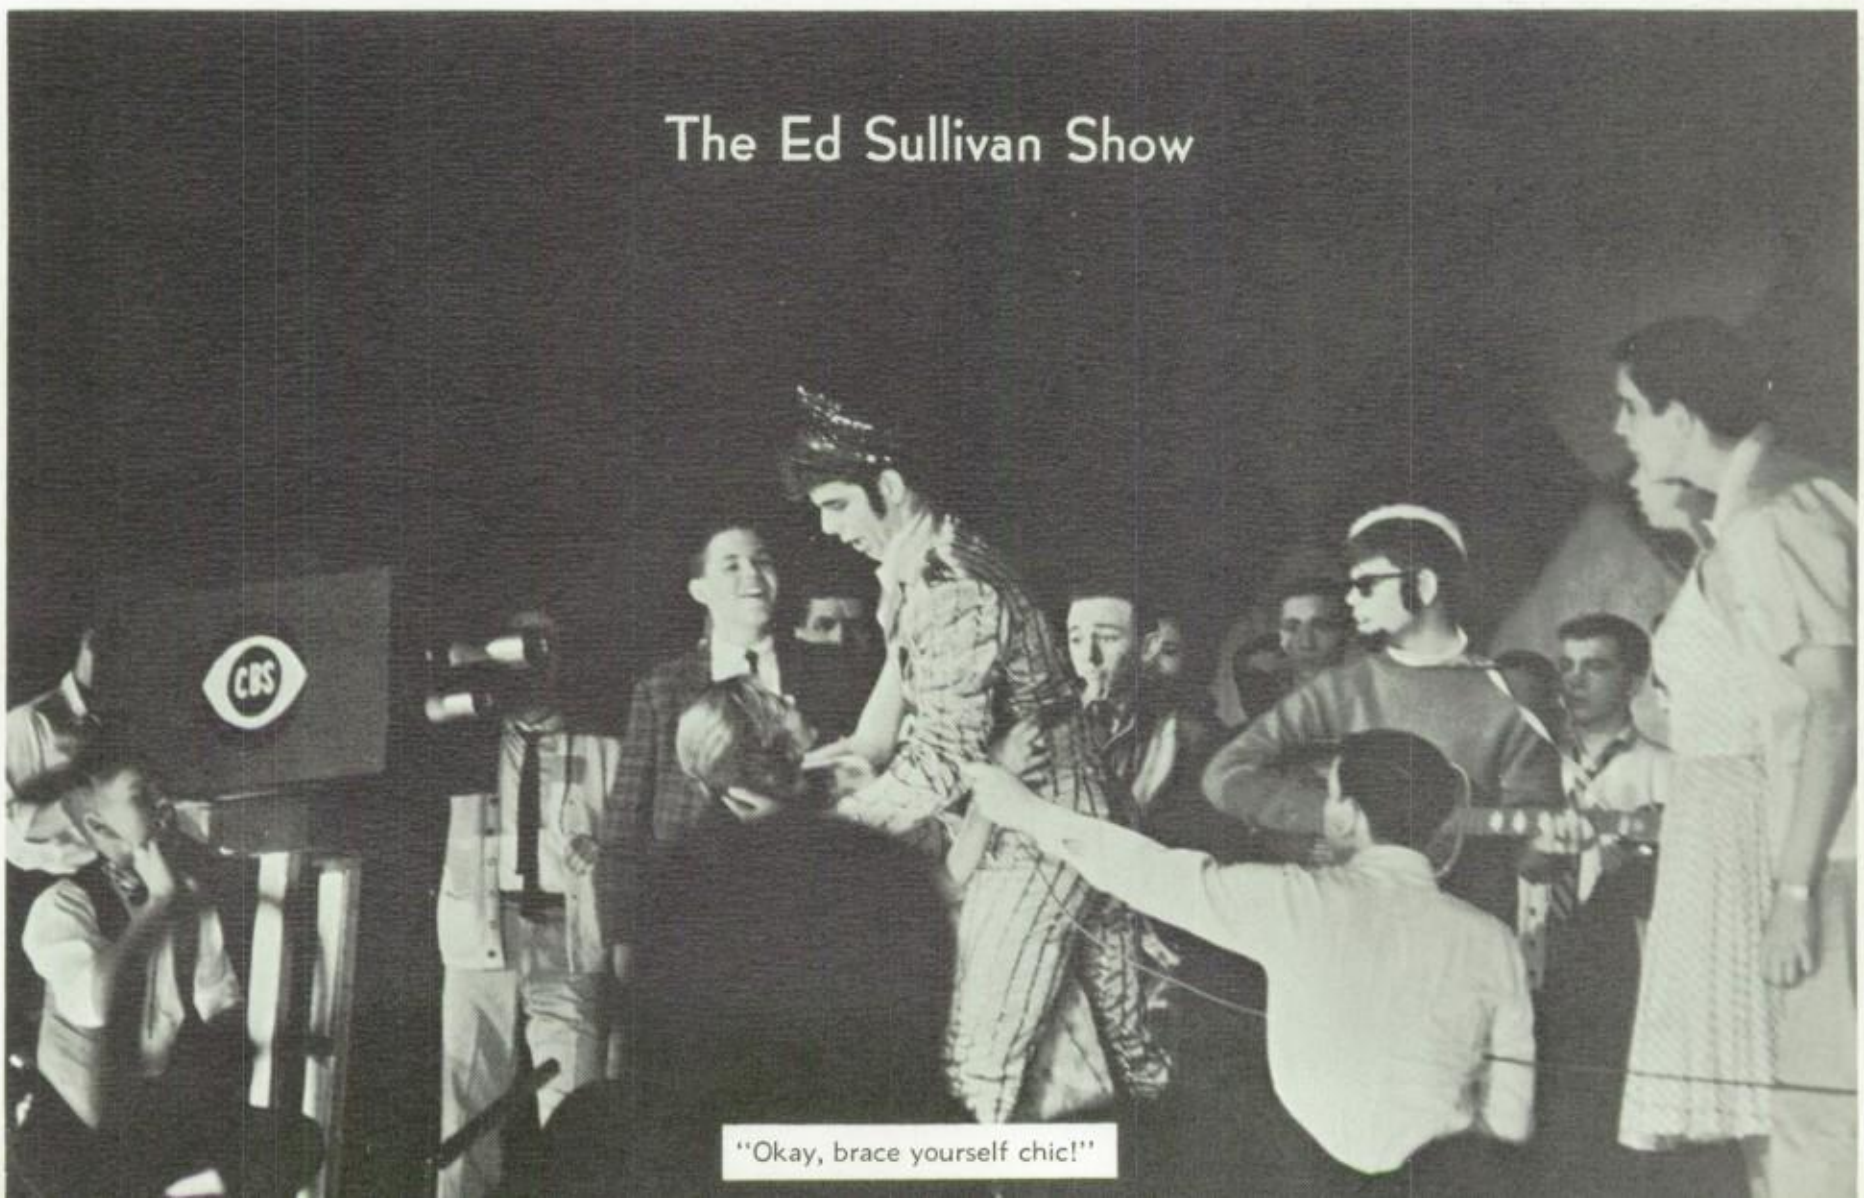
"You gotta be sincere."

Running for four nights plus an afternoon performance, the auditorium had a near capacity crowd for two shows and a sell-out for May 3 and 4. Robert Tango was outstanding as Conrad Birdie and Jinny Franze, in her own inimitable style, received overwhelming praise as Mae Peterson. Barbara Lane and Bruce Connors excellently portrayed the two teenagers, Kim and Hugo. Their fine acting ability was emphasized by the gifted voice of Barbara and the jealousy role of Bruce.

"There are places to go, people to see."

Conrad grabs a late night beer.

"I'm giving up the Conrad Birdie fan club for good."



"Okay, brace yourself chic!"

Chip Auker and Joanne McGrath

"We're going to be on Ed Sullivan."

"Good old Hugo here. Looped!"

"For he's a fine upstanding, patriotic, healthy . . ."

"He loved you, Rose."

GLEE CLUB

As in previous years, the Christmas Concert, under the excellent direction of Father William McGann, proved to be the high point in Glee Club activity. Accompanied at the piano by Frederick Orthlieb, the combined choirs of Good Counsel Academy and Stepinac High School presented a variety of Christmas songs and carols, both modern and traditional, which truly exemplified the Christmas spirit. The evening also included a solo by Peggy Kennedy and a violin sonata by Joseph Niedermaier.

DANCE COMMITTEE

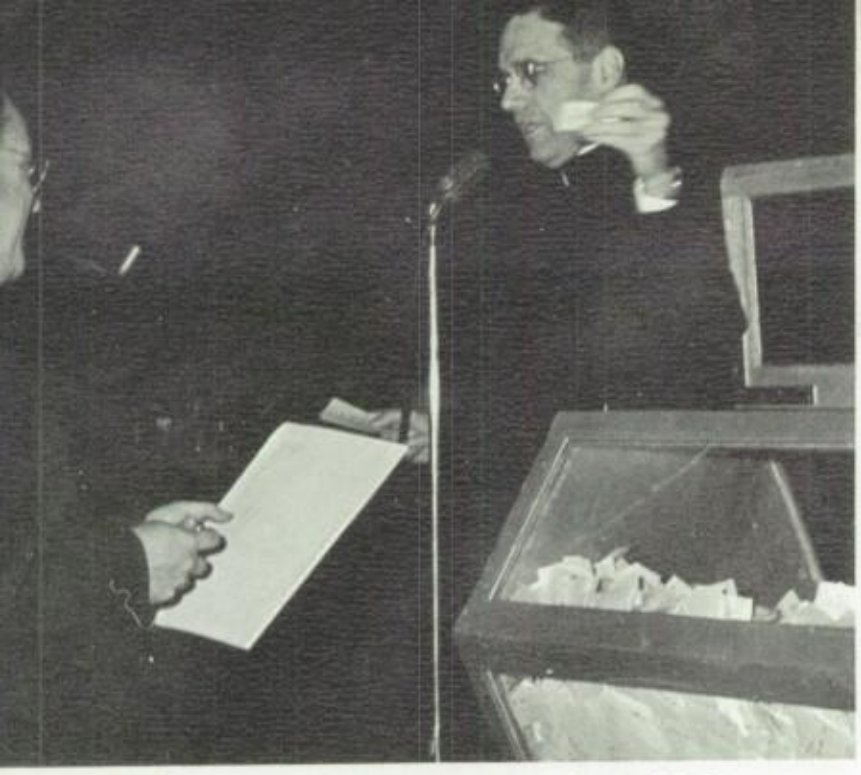
K. Fox, M. Reitan, T. DeVito, T. Cummings, M. Buckley (chairman), M. Bank, A. Sullivan, K. O'Connor, W. Caraluzzi, R. Brass, D. McGrath, J. Mahoney, J. Lynch, J. Cawley, L. Stehmer.

Under the direction of Mark Buckley, committee chairman, and his able assistants, Bob Bott, Tom Madden, and Mike Bank, the Dance Committee organized and supervised the finest dances which have been held at the school in recent years. Father Tobin, as Committee moderator, provided the experience and advice which helped make this a socially successful year. The highlight of the Committee's works was the Christmas Dance, attended by 150 couples, a number held down by a snowstorm. Music for this dance was provided by the "Chants," who opened at the Peppermint Lounge the following week.

The Emotions" with the two twist winners the Senior Dance.

"The Shepherds" entertain at the Thanksgiving Dance.

"The Shells and "T.J." are pictured at the Spring Dance.

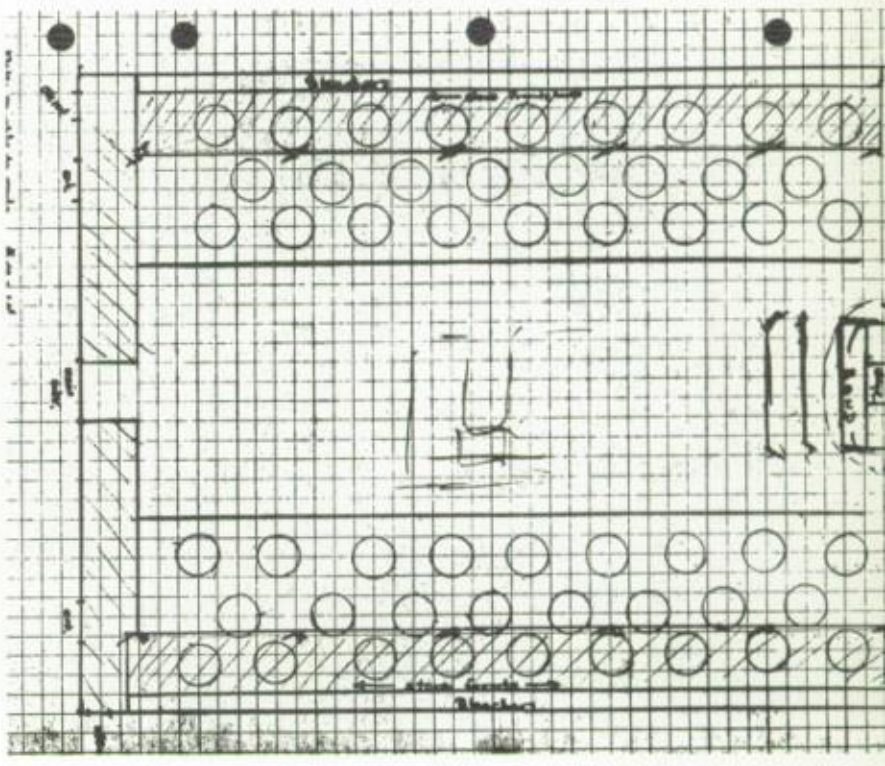


Monsignor McManus picks first prize at the Raffle Dance.

There is always time for conversation between dances.

A crowded dance floor means a successful dance.

Bob Bott and Mark Buckley work out plans for an upcoming dance.



Blueprints are drawn up for the Christmas Dance.

THE USHER SOCIETY

Usher Mike McGlinn offers assistance to a lady-theatergoer.

Under the direction of Father Tobin, the Usher Society assisted at numerous social events throughout the school year: "The Ugly American," "Bye, Bye Birdie," the Mother's Bridge, and Parents Night. Through the efforts of the society, all those who attended these functions received a courteous welcome.

V. Farrell, J. Purcell, W. Austin, C. Sampson, M. Connelly, P. Ford, J. McAvoy.

A. Jannetti, K. McHale, J. Vierno, M. McGlinn, W. Mills, S. McLoughlin.

John Foraste

John has been a major asset for the past four years in music. He is a four year man in the marching band and the school orchestra, as well. John has also added his imaginative figurations in Stepinac dramas. Next year Holy Cross will welcome his musical talents.

Kevin Fox

Kev, who for many years has personally taught himself, has publicly proved during the past two years to be a very versatile guitarist. Kev claims his rocking chair is the real key to his success.

Tom Monti

Classical piano not appealing to Tom, he has faithfully spent much time developing his pleasingly smooth jazz technique. "The Shepherds" are grateful to his two years of service.

DANCE BAND

Upon graduation, our school dance band, the Shepherds, will lose five of its six members. Any student who has attended a school dance this year can attest to the fact that the Shepherds have made unbelievable improvement in their musical composition.

Their popularity has spread throughout the county. Because of their frequent employment at Church affairs, teen centers, school dances, and even private cocktail parties, the Band's wide variety of dance music has won the praise of all, and their four year veteran, John Foraste, deserves a great deal of credit for his two years of leadership.

Richard Cicatelli

Rich is a three year veteran of the "Shepherds." His musical talents have earned him a place in the marching band and musical orchestra for the past four years. He has also appeared in Stepinac dramas. Next year Rich will study at Marquette University.

William Scheid

Three years of "Shepherds" bookings from night clubs to weddings have created an experienced trumpeter. Next year Guy hopes to further his reputation at Dayton U.

Robert Guarnieri

Bob, the only non-senior band member, claims to be another two-year man.

REMEMBER WHEN

T. S. Eliot seemed interesting.
Our "society" made their TV debut at Chaminade.
A rampage of kleptomania struck Gonzaga.
"The Crusader" finally spelled the word football correctly.
Those games of chance during those great lunch periods.
"Chicky" drove "into" the Maid to buy a shake.
Fr. Murray "cracked down" during Religion tests.
Professor Larry extinguished one entire row of Chemistry students.
The "Shells" taught the senior class how to drive.
Captain Tom led his marauders to Mamaroneck.
Dan had to leave suddenly during the Kingston Trio concert.
The basketball team almost won the "pennant."
The school was almost blown up by a would-be prankster.
The "golf club" was censured for absenteeism.
The merry threesome helped us finish this silly book.
"J. B." got a date for the Senior Prom.
Father McMahon revolted.
Msgr. Mulroy gave up on his "men."
The yearbook almost didn't make it.

EDITOR'S PAGE

STEPINAC '63 HAS MEANT: a new principal, twenty-eight Regents scholarship winners, the best football team in the school's history, a highly successful debate team, a return to the play-offs in basketball, another championship in riflery, a strong student government under which an extensive intra-mural program has been developed, and countless other events that have occurred in and out of class.

THE 1963 SHEPHERD has attempted to cover the diverse aspects of Stepinac life which have made this year memorable. It has been our aim, primarily through photography, to present the scholastic year in such a way that it will be remembered by all. We, the Shepherd staff, hope that we have been successful in this endeavor.

THE 1963 SHEPHERD was printed by the New City Printing Co. of Union City, New Jersey. This, the 13th volume, 160 pages in content, is printed on 100 pound Saxony paper. The page size is 9 by 12 inches. The end sheets are of a gray Strathmore Antique stock. The text is 10 pt. Metro light and bold, and the page headings are 30 and 36 pt. Bernard Gothic Medium. The cover is Engravatone padded embossed, by the S. K. Smith Company of Chicago. Delma Studios of New York handled the Senior portraits.

The editor wishes to thank:

THE ENTIRE STUDENT BODY, especially the class of '63 for their support of the 1963 Shepherd.

FATHER McMAHON, yearbook moderator, for his many fresh ideas, and for his valuable assistance in surmounting the many problems which the Shepherd staff faced throughout the year.

FATHER McGOWAN, moderator of the photography staff, for his guidance in the many aspects of photography which are pertinent in the production of a yearbook.

J. B. QUINN, managing editor, for his knowledge of grammar which was essential, and for his sense of responsibility, especially during the football season when the entire burden rested upon his shoulders.

FRANK ZAK, business manager, for his competent handling of a complex financial operation.

JOE VIERNO, faculty editor, for his handling of a difficult job.

BOB MURRAY, Senior and Worship editor, whose work made possible the most important section of this book.

DAN DONOVAN AND WALT MAHONEY, co-editors of the academic section, for their tireless work in developing a new and varied approach to activities.

JACK COCHRAN AND CHRIS SIEGLER, co-sports editors, whose thorough and methodical approach to a difficult undertaking made their section one of the highlights of the '63 Shepherd.

MARK BUCKLEY, entertainment editor, whose energy and freshness in approach made his section "come to life" in print.

"CHICK" NUGENT, photography editor, and his entire staff, whose excellent work account for the major portion of the photos in this book.

THE SPECIAL PATRONS, PATRONS, AND FRIENDS whose contributions were instrumental in the publishing of this book.

MR. FRANK BALL, MR. FRED BALL, MR. ED ADOMILLI, and the other employees of New City Printing Co., for their assistance throughout the year, and the fine printing job.

S. K. SMITH CO., for the cover of this yearbook.

DELMA STUDIOS, who not only supplied the portraits in the Faculty and Senior sections, but also sent us many fine action pictures for the academic and sports sections.

AND THE MANY OTHERS without whose aid this book would never have been published.

Respectfully,
Richard Bremer
